Have Germans a New Invention To Throw Projectiles 60 Miles?

BOMBARDMENT OF PARIS MUST REMAIN UNEXPLAINED UNTIL FURTHER DETAILS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED AS NO GUN CAN HURL SHELL THAT DISTANCE

CLAIM FRENCH CAPITAL HAS BEEN UNDER FIRE OF THE ENEMY FOR PAST EIGHT HOURS

Ordnance Officers at Washington State That No Such Range of Guns Had Ever Been Dreamed of, As World's Record, Established By Germans is Only 20 to 22 Miles—Enemy May Have Developed Some New World-Surprising Weapon or Some Sort of Aerial Torpedo

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, Mar. 23.—The Germans have been firing on Paris with long range guns.

Since 8:00 o'clock this morning shells of 240 millimeters have been reaching the capital and suburbs at intervals of a quarter of an hour, killing about 10 persons and wounding about 15. The shortest distance from Paris to the front is over 100 kilometers (62 miles).

The announcement that Paris was being bombarded was made officially this afternoon.

Measures for counter attacking the enemy's cannon are under execution.

The official announcement that Paris is being bombarded, must remain unexplained until further details have been received. The statement in the dispatch that the shortest distance from Paris to the front is over 100 kilometers indicates that there has been no breach in the battle line above Paris such as would permit of bringing up guns to within what has been previously regarded as the extreme range of heavy pieces.

Unless the Germans have some new invention, no such range as sixty miles is conceivable. The most powerful guns in action heretofore have been able to hurl their projectiles only 20 miles or thereabouts.

The calibre of the shells reaching Paris, 240 millimeters, is equivalent to about 9 1/2 inches. The heavy German siege pieces fire 17 inch shells. Paris has been under bombardment for about eight hours at the time the foregoing dispatch was filed, 4:15 p. m.

OFFICIAL WASHINGTON IS NOW ASTOUNDED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, March 23.—News that German guns were bombarding Paris at a range of about 62 miles, astonished American ordnance officers beyond belief.

No such range of guns had ever been dreamed of, they said. The world's record for long-distance bombardment was established by the Germans some time ago when at a range of 20 to 22 miles they dropped occasional shells into Dunkirk. The greatest long-range American gun yet developed is the 16-inch rifle which, at the greatest possible elevation, it is estimated, would throw a shell about 19 miles.

Evidently ordnance officers said, the German artilleryists had developed some new world-surprising weapon, although it was thought possible they might be using some sort of aerial torpedo.

Ordnance officers were first inclined to doubt the Germans were conducting their long-range bombardment from some nearer point to which they had broken through, but on reflection, concluded that even had the German troops suddenly rushed forward it would have been impossible to bring up and emplace heavy long-range guns in such a short time.

American officers here recall that when the Germans sprung their gun that would throw a shell 22 miles into Dunkirk the French soon found a way to meet the attack, partly at least.

A French wireless station, it is said, is located at a point in the ground not far from the gun emplacement, and at its position the concussion can be recorded when the shell leaves the gun. It takes something like 60 seconds for the shell to travel to Dunkirk, but a wireless signal is recorded in the city, a warning it sounded, and the inhabitants take to dugouts, generally reaching shelter before the shell strikes.

American officials say that incredible as this may seem, it should be borne in mind that the long-range guns of the Germans are no less so.

BELIEVE THAT THE ALLIED LINE WILL NOT BREAK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, March 23.—Confidence that the allied line, though it may bend, will not break, is expressed by the morning newspapers who are unanimously hopeful of the outcome of the desperate fighting the British and Germans are staging. The papers dwell on the accuracy of the British intelligence service in divining the enemy's intentions and in foreseeing the points and time of attack.

The battles on the western front are only beginning and the newspapers think that the assault on the Cambrai front, which probably was chosen because the undulating land in this region usually recovers from the effects of winter some weeks earlier than on the Franco-Belgian frontier, may not represent the main and ultimate feature of the enemy's offensive. It is felt there may yet be a sudden attack elsewhere, but there is no doubt of the ability of the British troops to hold the enemy just as they barred the road to Ypres.

GERMAN AIRMEN BEATEN BACK BY FRENCH AIRSHIPS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, Friday, March 22.—At 9 o'clock tonight a group of enemy airplanes crossed the lines and a certain number of bombs were dropped on Compeigne and different towns in that region. Several machines advanced further to the south but were forced to turn back by the fire of our artillery. The alarm was immediately given in Paris and a half hour later the "all clear" signal was sounded.

Apparently the Germans had intended to raid Paris itself but French airmen rose to meet the oncomers and not one enemy machine succeeded in reaching the capital.

ENEMY REPULSED BY THE FRENCH

Paris, March 23.—The Germans launched an attack on the French lines in the Woivre district last night, which was dispersed by the French fire. The Germans suffered appreciable losses and left some prisoners in the hands of the French.

BOY SCOUTS POSTER TO AID THEIR WORK FOR THIRD LIBERTY LOAN

The Legend boy scout poster for the Third Liberty Loan campaign.

Realizing the great work done by the Boy Scouts of America in the first two Liberty Loan campaigns the treasury department has issued one million copies of the above poster for use in the special Boy Scout campaign, which is to be conducted during the last ten days of the Third Liberty Loan campaign. This is at the special request of President Wilson. In the first campaign the Scouts secured subscriptions amounting to well over $23,000,000 and in the second to more than $102,000,000.

SLAUGHTER OF THE ENEMY APPALLING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, Mar. 23.—The most intense fighting appears to have been around Roisel and Trincourt. The slaughter in the enemy ranks was appalling.

Twelve times every available gun in the area was concentrated on solid massed bodies of enemy troops while the airmen grew weary with emptying their machine gun drums and dropping their bombs into the dense gray crowds of troops and returning for more ammunition.

GERMANS CLAIM CAPTURE OF 25,000 PRISONERS, 400 BIG GUNS AND 300 MACHINE GUNS ON WESTERN FRONT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Berlin, Mar. 23.—Between Fontaine les Croisilles and Moeuvres German forces penetrated into the second enemy position and captured two villages, army headquarters announced today. British counter attacks failed.

So far, the statement announced, 25,000 prisoners, 400 guns and machines have been taken.

The two villages taken on the Fontaine Moeuvres front were Vaux-Vraucourt and Morchies. The former village is about three and a half miles and the latter about two and a half miles behind the former British lines.

SOVIETS DISARM THE SOLDIERS AND REMOVE TROOPS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Moscow, March 23.—The Soviet government rapidly is disarming and disbanding the old army and eliminating its influence from public affairs. The Moscow Soviet has removed from its executive committee all soldier representatives and similar action is taking place throughout Russia, as the old army is presumably out of existence and not entitled to representation.

The new volunteer army will select representatives in the various Soviets. The old soldiers are unwilling at many places to surrender their arms and return to work at Petrograd three regiments declined to be demobilized. The Bolshevik red guards entered the barracks, surprised the sleeping soldiers, seized their arms and forced them to leave the city.

The Petrograd Soviet has issued a statement saying that these regiments were under influences contrary to the revolutionary movement, were lazy and undisciplined.

As explanation of the government's evacuation of Petrograd the Soviet has issued a statement saying the commissioners went to Moscow for the purpose of saving Petrograd from destruction, as they believed the government's removal will demonstrate the strength of the Russian people's government and show the Germans that the capture of the capital would be useless as the government is prepared to fall back constantly before the German advance, resisting and slowing down the enemy onslaught.

All available rolling stock is being used for the evacuation of Petrograd along the Trans-Siberian railroad toward the Ural mountains. The Petrograd munition works and the Shlisselburg powder factory near Petrograd, employing from 20,000 to 40,000 workmen are being moved to Omsk and Tobolsk.

British Defensive System West Of St. Quentin Broken Through By Great Weight of the Enemy

BRITISH STILL PRESENT SOLID FRONT TO HUNS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

British Army Headquarters in France, March 23, 11 A. M.—The British, gallantly fighting, are still presenting a solid front to the fiercely attacking Germans, although the defensive troops have withdrawn their lines in certain places for strategic reasons.

All day yesterday and much of last night the conflict continued to rage with increasing violence as fresh German divisions were hurled into the fray in an attempt to smash through the British defenses.

Forty-nine German divisions have been identified thus far on the battle front and prisoners have been taken from 18 of them. Some estimates place the number of German divisions engaged as high as ninety, but it is impossible to say whether this is accurate.

MUSTARD GAS USED AGAINST THE AMERICANS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

With the American Army in France, March 22.—The Germans launched a heavy gas attack against a certain town in our lines northwest of Toul last night. No wind was blowing and the fumes of mustard gas from the shells hung low over the lines for several hours. The batteries firing the shells were located to the right of Richcourt and our artillery was busy all morning with a retaliatory shelling.

The town shelled in the gas attack contained a certain number of Americans. Our artillery today dropped a number of large shells into Joliwood and after firing a few minutes secured direct hits on the target causing a tremendous explosion followed by dense columns of smoke as a big enemy munitions dump blew up. The first explosion was followed by two others less severe. Our shells also made direct hits in the enemy's first and third line trenches.

The Germans again have been given an example of the accuracy of the fire of our 37 millimeter guns. An enemy machine gun emplacement which has been annoying the Americans for the last two days was located and then the battery of "Little Fellers" as they are known, along the front, got into action, firing rapidly. They secured a number of direct hits and put the emplacement guns crew out of commission.

These small guns, which are about the size of a one pounder, are easily moved from place to place even in the trenches. They also secured direct hits on the junction of communication trenches as men were passing and into the entrance of the dugout which a number of the enemy were seen to enter and from which smoke was issuing. None of the enemy was seen to come out.

Intermittent artillery duels have been in progress all day both on our Toul front and in the Lunerville sector where American troops are in training.

Three of our patrols reached the enemy's line early this morning but in the brilliant moonlight they were discovered and were driven off by brisk machine gun and automatic rifle fire.

Our infantry discovered one enemy patrol inside our wire. These Germans were driven back and it is believed they suffered casualties.

There was increased aerial activity today. The weather was warm and it was generally clear except for a haze which obscured visibility above the low ground. One machine with an American observer at its gun emptied a stream of bullets into a German airplane which was observed descending rapidly as though in trouble behind our lines.

Ten German machines crossed our lines last night and circled around, apparently seeking out targets which they intended to bomb but American anti-aircraft guns kept the enemy so high that no explosives were dropped.

FIELD MARSHAL HAIG REPORTS THAT BRITON'S FIGHTING FORCES ARE FALLING BACK IN ORDER AND THAT YIELDING OF THE LINE NOT UNEXPECTED

MOVEMENT WILL NOT SERIOUSLY AFFECT THE STRONG DEFENSIVE LINES TO THE NORTH

Great Battle Still In Progress Along the British Front and Germans Continue to Throw Fresh Forces Into the Struggle—Fifty Enemy Divisions Involved With Twenty-Five Additional Held In Reserve—Allies Will Now Probably Call Out Reserves Held at Versailles, Who Are Ready For Action

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, March 23.—All official Washington turned its attention almost wholly today to the news from the fighting front.

Dispatches telling of penetration of the British defensive system, the retirement of British troops, Berlin's claim of large captures of men and guns, and finally the news that the Germans were bombarding Paris at the hitherto unheard-of range of about 62 miles, came as one surprise after the other.

Embassies and legations, American government officials, congressmen, and others, avid for news of the great battle besieged the Associated Press offices for the latest dispatches and crowds surrounded the newspaper bulletin boards.

With full realization of the tremendous consequences hanging on the resistance of the British and French armies, the general attitude of officials here was one of calm confidence.

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches) After two days' terrific battling in their great offensive on the western front, the Germans have finally succeeded in bringing the action at one point on the front some what more into the open.

Field Marshal Haig reports that the British defensive system west of St. Quentin near the southern edge of the fifty mile front under attack was broken through by the great weight of the enemy infantry and artillery. The British here are falling back in order.

That the yielding of the line at this point had been by no means unexpected and the possibility had been foreseen as ultimately inevitable is indicated by the statement that the retirement is to prepared positions further west across the devastated district. There is nothing in the report to indicate that this retrograde movement will affect the strong defensive lines to the north.

MAY CALL MEN BETWEEN AGES OF 18 AND 45

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, March 23.—Although the great battle was not mentioned on the floors of congress in the day's debates, every member was thinking of it, and its effect on the fate of the civilization of the world.

Senators without as much as a record vote, during consideration of some army bills rejected a proposal by Senator Hardwick to excuse drafted men from liability to military duty if they have passed 31 without entering the national army.

"The nation may need not only men who have passed the age of 30," declared Chairman Chamberlain of the military committee, "but those as old as 45, and possibly those between 18 and 21."

SECRETARY BAKER IS AT AN ENGLISH PORT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, March 23.—Newton D. Baker, the American secretary of war, visited King Albert of Belgium and the Belgian front yesterday. Mr. Baker has arrived at a British port.

In any way seriously, as it is explicitly stated that these positions continue to be held by the British forces.

Just what the effect will be upon the entente line to the south is not yet apparent. The British hold the front to a point some fifteen miles south of St. Quentin, to the river Oise and about the town of Ma Fere where the French line begins. No reports have been received from Paris as to whether the French forces have been come involved in the battle. From the nearness of the point of German penetration to their lines, however, it would seem probable that they soon will be found taking part in the struggle.

There is another factor to be considered also, should the German thrust develop more seriously. There was created last winter by the supreme war council at Versailles an entente "army of maneuver" understood to be made up of allied troops, which was designed to be available for action at any point on the wide front from the North Sea to the Adriatic, where it should be needed.

It has doubtless not been the entente intention to throw this army into action hastily, but it unquestionably stands ready for use in any emergency and might easily prove the vital factor in any general engagement which the western front fighting should develop.

The battle is still in progress along the British front with the Germans continuing to throw fresh forces into the struggle. It is estimated that 50 German divisions are already involved with probably 25 or more additional divisions in close reserve. Advances from correspondents indicate that wherever the British troops are falling back they are doing so in excellent order and with deliberation withdrawing voluntarily at some points in order to maintain an unbroken front.

GERMAN RAIDER CAUGHT IS THE ALEX. AGASSIZ

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, March 23.—Capture by an American warship of a German raider fitted out at a Mexican port, manned by Germans and carrying German flags, was announced tonight by Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

Capture of the vessel was made in the Pacific and the prize has been towed to a Pacific Coast Port.

The statement of Secretary Daniels follows:

"The Navy Department is advised that a small American vessel, the Agassiz, which sailed from a West Mexican port, where she had been fitted out under circumstances which led the naval authorities to believe that she might be used as an enemy raider, has been seized at sea and taken to a Pacific port for investigation."

"There were found aboard several Germans, German flags, rifles and pistols."

"When seized she had no ship's papers and a number of articles were seen to be thrown overboard."

BATTLE DESCRIBED BY CORRESPONDENT OF GERMAN PAPER

Amsterdam, March 24 (Sunday).—Describing the first day of the battle on the western front, the correspondent of the Vossische Zeitung, says that the British artillery was held with "uncanny precision" and its counter efforts became ever fainter and less systematic.

"The British strewed their shells without system over the wide zone of attack," he says. "Our guns, supported by cannons and howitzers of our Austro-Hungarian allies, had cleared the way for the infantry. The German attacking troops swung over the ramparts punctual to the minute which had been fixed weeks ago and made a great push into the enemy territory on the same ground over which the Von Hindenburg retreat took place a year ago."

"The attack westward now went forward with the old offensive spirit of 1914. Our battalions stormed over the ground and broke the enemy resistance along the entire line. It is declared unanimously that the British fought bravely, but their leadership was not equal to the mighty blow."

"By evening the British front had been pushed back on the whole broad battlefield. A thick mist during the morning hours considerably disturbed our operations. Curtains of mist gathered so thickly that the men serving the field artillery, which advanced immediately behind the infantry, could hardly handle their horses."

"The batteries had to take their new objectives under fire without direct observation and the infantry laboriously had to win positions and sectors in the fog and without any methodical artillery preparation."

been making full use of this arm as the advance continues.

UNABLE TO FORCE WAY THROUGH ARTILLERY

London, March 25.—Early this morning the Germans again hurled great numbers of infantry against the British line near Ervillers, but the latest reports are the onrushing troops had been unable to force their way through the intense artillery barrage which the British maintained.

A heavy battle also has been progressing today on the British right flank where the enemy has succeeded in forcing his way across the Somme and the canal south of Ham. The allies were delivering counter-attacks with the purpose of pushing back the invaders across the waterway.

The Germans swarmed over No Man's Land in such great numbers in their first attacks that it was impossible for the British gunners to make them, telegraphs the correspondent at British headquarters in France of the Daily Express. Two batteries at Epehy fired steadily with open sights at 400 yards for four hours. Telling of the thrilling exploit of Leicestershire troops, the correspondent says:

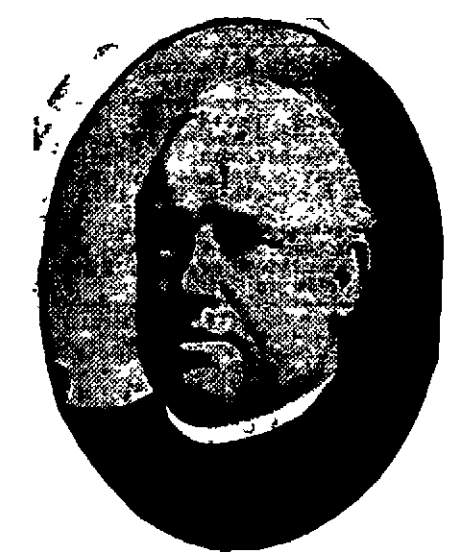

"Perzler was held for a time by two companies of Leicestershire's assisted by two tanks. The enemy kept pressing them back, however, and one company was completely cut off by two tanks. The enemy kept to the village until only a few men were left. Then the surviving officers led them in a charge through two lines of Germans and they fought their way back to our main body."

TO DISCOURAGE NEW INDUSTRIES.

Washington, March 25.—To discourage all new industrial projects not deemed essential to the prosecution of the war, the war industries board will withhold from such new plants the benefits of priority of transportation for their products.

Even when people pull together they ought to have a lot of push.

Madrid, Saturday, March 23.—The new Spanish cabinet was welcomed enthusiastically today by the members of the lower house of the Spanish parliament. KING GEORGE SENDS MESSAGE OF HELP AND SYMPATHY

London, March 25.—King George today sent the following message to Field Marshal Haig:

"I can assure you that the fortitude, courage and self-sacrifice with which the troops under your command continue so heroically to resist greatly superior numbers are realized by me and my people. The empire stands calm and confident in its soldiers. May God bless them and give them strength in this time of trial."

and planned down. When close to the ground it dropped a quantity of bombs. Some were of new variety which exploded in midair with a bluish red flash and gave off a cloud of mustard gas. Being heavier than the air the mustard gas quickly descended toward some of our battery positions and a road. After the machine disappeared the German gas shell bombardment began. Another enemy airplane hovered over the town while the bombardment with gas shells was in progress.

The weather was especially suitable today for aerial work and the Germans took advantage of it. On one portion of the sector 14 enemy airplanes crossed between noon and 6 o'clock in the evening, while four friendly ones were over the American lines in the same period. One group of seven enemy machines, apparently on a bombing expedition, was discovered at midnight and driven off by the rapid-fire of American anti-aircraft guns.

An American patrol has brought in quantities of valuable papers from the bodies of five Germans killed in a shell-hole by American fire a few days ago. Among the papers taken from an elderly soldier was a letter from his daughter in Berlin.

The French commander of a division with which American troops are being trained today awarded the cross of war to an American infantryman who two nights ago gave his life rather than abandon his post of duty. The war cross was spiked to the coffin before burial.

Two infantrymen entered an abandoned trench to establish sniper post when they observed several Germans in the wire before the American trenches. Other Germans arrived. There began an exchange of rifle fire which resulted in a barrage from both sides.

At the end of an hour the enemy gave up his attempt to enter the American lines and withdrew. Then it was discovered that one of the two Americans had been killed. There was plenty to cover within a few yards, but he remained at his post throughout the artillery battle.

SENATE VOTES TO APPROPRIATE FUNDS TO BUY PROPERTY

Washington, March 25.—The conference report on the $1,150,000,000 urgent deficiency appropriation bill including riders, authorized sale of all enemy property in this country and for purchase by the government of German warships and docks at Hoboken, N. J., was adopted today by the senate, 60 to 1, and sent to the house.

AMERICAN AWARDED THE SERVICE CROSS

American Army in France, Sunday, March 24.—Lieutenant H. R. Davies, the United States military medical reserve, who is serving with the British army, has been awarded the distinguished service cross, one of the four new American decorations for bravery.

He performed an amputation operation and saved the life of a British soldier. He received the first medal conferred on any American serving with the British forces.

THIS GERMAN FOOLED MILITARY OFFICIALS OF HIS OWN COUNTRY

Amsterdam, March 7.—William Voigt, a shoemaker who caused the whole world to laugh at the expense of German militarism by his escape at Coepenick in 1906, is dead, according to an announcement made in Berlin.

In October, 1906, a man in the uniform of a captain of grenadiers recruited a detachment of twelve men in the streets of Berlin through a forged military order. At the head of the men the "captain," who was Voigt, went to Coepenick, a small town near Berlin. There he arrested the burgomaster and the treasurer of the town and took possession of funds amounting to about $1000.

The trick was soon discovered and Voigt in December was sentenced to four years imprisonment. In August, 1908, he was pardoned by Emperor William and in March, 1910, he went to the United States, where he visited Chicago and New York. His deportation was ordered from Washington and in April he was sent out of the United States.

WISH IT WERE TRUE, BUT NO SUCH WORD HAS BEEN RECEIVED

SEC. BAKER IS PRESENTED TO KING

London, March 25.—Wild rumors were circulated over Ohio last night and today to the effect that the German crown prince and 200,000 German troops had been captured by the British.

No report to this effect has been received from the western front in any of the official or press dispatches.

However the rumor evidently was generally believed, for in one Ohio town a parade was formed last night, the marchers carrying red lights to celebrate the capture of the crown prince.

SEC. BAKER IS PRESENTED TO KING

London, March 25.—Secretary Baker was presented to King George at Buckingham Palace today by Ambassador Page. The secretary remained for an hour with the king, discussing America's effort in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Page remained for luncheon with the king and queen, but Mr. Baker had to hurry away to call on Premier Lloyd George at 12:30 o'clock. Later he gave a luncheon to the members of his staff and to Vice Admiral Sims and Major General Blidie. The secretary spent the remainder of the day at the war office, in conference with the Earl of Derby, Secretary for War and other British military officials.

PRES. WILSON CABLES FIELD MARSHAL HAIG ON GALLANT DEFENSE

Washington, March 25.—President Wilson today cabled Field Marshal Haig congratulating him on the British stand against the German offensive and predicting a final allied victory.

The President's message read: "May I not express to you my warm admiration of the splendid steadfastness and valor with which your troops have withstood the German onset and the perfect confidence all Americans feel that you will win a secure and final victory."

TO RESIST THE ATTACK

of the germs of many diseases, such as Grip, Malaria, Measles, for all of us—fight or die. These germs are everywhere in the air we breathe. The odds are in favor of the germs.

What is needed most is an increase in the germ-fighting strength. To do this successfully you need to put on healthy flesh, rouse the liver to vigorous action, so it will throw off these germs, and purify the blood so that there will be no weak spot, or soil for germ-growth.

We claim for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that it does all this in a way peculiar to itself. It cures troubles caused by torpid liver or impure blood.

HARRIS STATION, OHIO.—"During part of October and November last I was very much out of vigor and strength. Excessive duties had reduced my vitality until I could scarcely do my chores, much less the labor so much needed on the place. I was nervous, dizzy and weak, had pain in back and general soreness of the muscles, etc., but I felt certain it was only a run-down condition and I knew the effective qualities of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery Tablets so I got a small box and took them, getting quick and wonderful relief. I got the second box at my drug store but did not use all of it because I did not feel the need. Now I can work with ease and pleasure. I most heartily and cheerfully recommend the Discovery."—W. A. ROBERTS, R. F. D. 1.

REYDSBURG, OHIO.—"We have used Doctor Pierce's medicines in our family for over forty years and found them very satisfactory for all troubles for which they are recommended. We have found Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets one of the best things to regulate the bowels."—L. W. TUSSENG.

GENERALS DECORATED BY EMPEROR WILLIAM

Amsterdam, March 25.—Emperor William at German main headquarters on Sunday, according to an official announcement at Berlin, conferred the Iron Cross with Gold Rays on Field Marshal von Hindenburg and the Grand Cross of the Order of the Iron Cross on General von Ludendorff. The emperor also gave various decorations to departmental chiefs along with a signed photograph with the date of the battle, March 21-23.

WORTHY BRAVERY IS REWARDED WITH SERVICE CROSS

With the American Army in France, Thursday, March 21.—The distinguished service cross has been awarded to Corporal Charles H. Burke, infantry. His citation reads: "Severely wounded while patrolling, he refused to leave his platoon commander, who also was severely wounded. He stayed at his side during intense bombardment and assisted in driving off an enemy patrol."

LONDON COMMENT ON THE OFFENSIVE

London, March 25.—Commenting on the results of the German offensive, the Daily Chronicle says:

"Assuming that the German losses at least 150,000 the enemy has sustained a reverse for he has not obtained a strategic success directly conducting to a decision, while he has lost eight or ten per cent. of his effectives without similarly lowering the efficiency of the allies."

"This matter is of the greatest importance for Germany at present is at the critical moment when the man power pendulum is swinging in favor of the allies. No weakness at the Anglo-French junction has yet been disclosed and the task before the enemy in the next days of the battle is more formidable than that already accomplished."

"The ultimate object of this rapid and intent enemy advance is clearly the great strategic point of Amiens," says the Times, "and, though it is still remote, the situation is sufficiently serious to warrant a contemplation of this catastrophe. The fall of Amiens might have three fold consequences. It would bring the enemy to a point to which to threaten our northern line, it would assist them to strike at the channel ports and it would endanger seriously the safety of Paris."

The Times advises the British people to take seriously the long range gun which has been reported to have been fired from the Somme.

"We may be quite certain that our own inviolate shores will soon learn what the new gun can do."

That Great Britain failed to make a greater concentration of men on the western front is deplored by the Morning Post which urges that conscription be put into effect in Ireland to fill the gap.

"This great battle," it says, "teaches us all the vital nature of the western front. It is here that the war is being decided. What would we give now for all those glorious legions we have sent to the end of the earth at the behest of our amateurs in strategy? Even the dazzling glories of Perusalem fade into insignificance in the light of this conflict on the Somme."

ZONE SYSTEM TO GOVERN THE COAL DISTRIBUTION NOW

Columbus, March 25.—A statement explaining the zone system to govern the distribution of bituminous coal during the year beginning April 1, adopted by the U. S. Fuel administration, issued today by Homer H. Johnson, federal fuel administrator for Ohio.

"Under the zone system coal will be distributed to consuming territory under restrictions that will avoid as far as possible waste of transportation facilities, but nevertheless consistent with the maintenance of the greatest possible production and a proper coal supply to all users," said Johnson.

The system will do away with long hauls and will require consumers to obtain coal from the zones in which they are located. Special emphasis is given to two things in Johnson's statement. These are:

"Consumers in these zones must fill their bins during the coming summer and keep these mines running every day of the week if these zones are to avoid serious coal shortages next winter."

"The early buying of next winter's supply of coal by consumers throughout the country is considered imperative by both the fuel administrator and the director general of railroads."

Johnson says that when a consumer finds that he no longer has the opportunity to get his coal from a distant mine according to his custom, it is hoped that he will realize that his using another sort of coal is an essential part of the scheme of conservation in the interest of the national defense.

GERMAN LOSSES HEAVY. London, March 25.—Emperor William and Field Marshal Hindenburg visited Peronne, Sunday evening, according to Berlin advices forwarded from Amsterdam by the Exchange Telegraph.

The German losses in the battle at Rapaume are described as "comparatively heavy."

Marguerite Clark.
The scenes of the dance at Bab's home in Marguerite Clark's latest Paramount photoplay, "Bab's Matinee Idol" which were recently filmed at the Paramount studios were the occasion of much comment and amusement among the players. There was furnished a real and very fine orchestra and Nigel Barrie as Carter Brooks and Helen Green as Lolla, the big sister, took full advantage of the opportunity to display some of the very latest steps. The scene was rehearsed five times, to the great delight of all. Miss Clark as Bab, will appear on the screen of the Auditorium theatre today for the last time. This feature is seen together with "My Father," the third of the Lincoln Series; also the Hearst Pathe News.

A powerful story of international intrigue and built up to a striking dramatic climax, is unfolded in William Fox's absorbing screen melodrama, "The Moral Law," which comes to the Auditorium tomorrow, Sunday.

NORMA TALMADGE
GHOSTS OF YESTERDAY

Gladys Brockwell, the brilliant emotional artist, is the star of the production and gives a remarkable characterization in the dual role she plays. Miss Brockwell is first seen as Isobel de Costa, daughter of an importer of South American merchandise. Until her father's death, she does not know that her father's wife and daughter are still living in one of the Latin republics. The film describes these two women as deserving of no consideration because of the debased nature of Isobel determines, however, to seek them out and to divide her fortune with them if they will but change their mode of life. She goes to South America and finds that the woman is known as Jazabel (Rosita Marstini), one of the notorious characters in the local "red light" district. Her daughter, Anita (also played by Gladys Brockwell), enjoys a similar notoriety. Isobel's adventures in the rendezvous and the efforts of Anita to discredit Isobel with the latter's sweetheart, Robert Grant (Colin Chase), with Don Pedro (Bertram Grassby), and Umberto (Joseph Smilgton), as tools, make the action as rapid as it is interesting.

Gladys Brockwell is seen at Mgr. Fox's theatre tomorrow, together with Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, who is seen in his latest Paramount-Arbuckle comedy, "The Bell Boy," in

"Mutt and Jeff's Divorce."
Some of the things that happen in and around theatres are often as amusing as many of the incidents introduced before the curtain rises, a merry-eyed, middle-aged man of good proportions stuck two reserved seats at the ticket seller and asked that they be exchanged for two in the balcony.

"I caught my wife going through my pockets last night when she thought I wasn't looking. I've dated up a Cousin to sit the piece through with me this afternoon, and I want to anticipate anything the missus might do," he said.

Shortly after the man and a young woman with him had repaired to the shelter of the up-stairs section of the theatre, a lean, wiry woman, about forty, asked if she might have two seats, the numbers of which she indicated, as well as the row. These two seats, she directs well, and the two turned in by the anxious male patron of some moments before. Making his own deductions, the box office man gave the elderly woman the desired two seats and saw her occupy one of them with a man who bore many of the marks of a private detective. Then, with a sense of humor not generally accredited to more theatre ticket sellers, the box office man sold the elderly woman the desired two seats, and saw her occupy one of them with a man who bore many of the marks of a private detective. "Ghosts of Yesterday."
You are always satisfied and pleased by a drama depicting the spiritual awakening of a man and a woman, and the ripening of a full true love. Then, by all means, be sure to see "Ghosts of Yesterday," the thrilling Select Star Series photoplay, featuring Norma Talmadge, who will appear at the Auditorium Monday and Tuesday.

As Ruth Grahame, the dove of peace, and later as Jeanne La Fleur, the bird of paradise, Miss Talmadge displays her high artistic and dramatic role. Gorgeously produced and superbly acted by an all-star cast "Ghosts of Yesterday" depicts the spiritual growth of a talented singer, the queen of the Follies, from a wanton into a loving woman with a heart of true gold. The artist, Howard Marion, feels at first that no one can replace his late wife—

Dillingham's "Stop, Look, Listen!" She then played an important part in "Oh, Boy!" the musical comedy which scored for more than two years on Broadway and it was during this engagement that she received two very interesting offers one from the Ardley Art Film Corporation to appear in a motion picture of her own story and the other from those discerning managers, Chas. Dillingham and Florenz Ziegfeld, who saw in her just the girl they wanted for their Big Century theatre show, "Miss 1917."

The final result was that Miss Davies left the cast of "Oh, Boy!" and was able to accept both offers, working by day at the studio and by night at the theatre.

Monday and Tuesday.

Another triumph for motion picture art over that of the stage is scored by "Brown of Harvard," the Perfection

Picture at the Alhambra theatre Monday and Tuesday.

Again the screen demonstrates its unlimited field for realism in life at the great eastern college.

The picture is an adaptation from the famous novel and audible play by Rita Johnson Young and Gilbert P. Coleman. Hazel "Honey" Daly and Tom Moore are its co-stars, with Sydney Ainsworth heading an excellent supporting cast. It was produced by William N. Selig.

Compared with the speaking drama, the silent production is infinitely better in detail. The great Yale-Harvard boat race, an impossibility on the stage, is shown from beginning to end in the picture, with its attendant thrills and cheering throngs. Many other of the story's spectacular scenes are as realistically visualized. Practically all exterior scenes, it is said, were filmed at Harvard.

Miss Daly, who will be remembered by the Skinner pictures as Helen Harrington, the role of Evelyn Ames, for whose love Tom Brown, Harvard athlete, attempts to shield her profligate brother Wilton. The role of Brown is played by Mr. Moore.

The story shows Wilton desperately involved with Marion Thorne, sister of Harvard's stroke oar. The boy is en-shared by Victor Colton, a gambler into a plot to defeat Harvard in the boat race by disabling Thorne. In accomplishing this plan they lead him to believe Tom Brown is responsible for his sister's trouble.

As Ruth Grahame, the dove of peace, and later as Jeanne La Fleur, the bird of paradise, Miss Talmadge displays her high artistic and dramatic role. Gorgeously produced and superbly acted by an all-star cast "Ghosts of Yesterday" depicts the spiritual growth of a talented singer, the queen of the Follies, from a wanton into a loving woman with a heart of true gold. The artist, Howard Marion, feels at first that no one can replace his late wife—ances that has kept the players of the big-organization smiling ever since.

At the mid-week matinee, sometime before the curtain rises, a merry-eyed, middle-aged man of good proportions stuck two reserved seats at the ticket seller and asked that they be exchanged for two in the balcony.

"I caught my wife going through my pockets last night when she thought I wasn't looking. I've dated up a Cousin to sit the piece through with me this afternoon, and I want to anticipate anything the missus might do," he said.

Shortly after the man and a young woman with him had repaired to the shelter of the up-stairs section of the theatre, a lean, wiry woman, about forty, asked if she might have two seats, the numbers of which she indicated, as well as the row. These two seats, she directs well, and the two turned in by the anxious male patron of some moments before. Making his own deductions, the box office man gave the elderly woman the desired two seats and saw her occupy one of them with a man who bore many of the marks of a private detective. Then, with a sense of humor not generally accredited to more theatre ticket sellers, the box office man sold the elderly woman the desired two seats, and saw her occupy one of them with a man who bore many of the marks of a private detective.

Brown, a substitute on the boat crew, replaces Thorne and wins the race. As he is being cheered by the throngs lining the river, Thorne rushes up with a revolver to shoot him. DOCTOR URGED AN OPERATION

Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Was Cured.

Baltimore, Md.—"Nearly four years I suffered from organic troubles, nervousness and headaches and every month would have to stay in bed most of the time. Treatments would relieve me for a time but my doctor was always urging me to have an operation. My sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before consenting to an operation. I took five bottles of it and it has completely cured me and my work is a pleasure. I tell all my friends who have any trouble of this kind what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—NELLIE B. BRITTON, 609 Calverton Rd., Baltimore, Md.

It is only natural for any woman to dread the thought of an operation. So many women have been restored to health by this famous remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after an operation has been advised that it will pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to consider trying it before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

OVER 70, BUT RELIEVED BY INTERNAL BATHS

Mrs. L. M. Wadla writes Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York as follows:

"Within the last month have had wonderful results and all inflammation has nearly subsided. I could hardly expect a woman over 70 to receive benefit from a trouble of long standing as quickly as a younger person. Money could not buy my J. B. L. Cascade if I could not get another."

It is difficult to believe how many internal troubles internal bathing will relieve until you realize that physicians agree that 95% of human ailments are caused by accumulated waste in the lower intestine.

The "J. B. L. Cascade," the scientific method of internal bathing, removes in a perfectly natural way all poisonous waste, and has been so successful in promoting health that over half a million intelligent Americans are now using it regularly.

It is produced by Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D. of New York, who for 25 years has been a specialist on internal bathing, and is now being shown and explained by Hudson Avenue Pharmacy, R. L. Williams, Prop., 322 Hudson Ave., corner Oak st., Newark, Ohio.

They will give you on request a very interesting booklet on Internal Bathing. Ask for "Dr. Tyrrell's Man of Today is Only 50% Efficient."

BUY WAR SAVINGS STAMPS IN ARCH LEEDY'S MEMORY

ARCH B. LEEDY.

This week is "Archie Leedy" week in the Thrift campaign, in memory of the first Newark boy to give up his life for his country in the war with Germany. Every Thrift and War Savings Stamp bought this week will be a tribute to the memory of this Newark boy who gave up his life for the protection of his home and his country. Let the purchase of War Savings Stamps be generous. America today needs money, men and service as never before. If possible join the Licking County $1,000 War Savings Society by buying 200 $5 stamps this week for $828. Buy stamps this week in Arch Leedy's memory.

Don't Be a Slacker, But Be a True American

Every person—man, woman and child—owes the duty of not being a slacker in this time of world-wide war for the defense of lives, liberty and happiness.

It is sufficiently well-established that the war in which we are engaged is one to protect ourselves from being despoiled by the Teuton empires and armies who have for 50 years been taught that conquest by war is legitimate and that the subjugation of other nations and peoples is praiseworthy.

They have also been taught obedience to the commands of their officers and that cruelty practiced upon conquered peoples as a means of terrifying others, is the duty of the soldier upon command.

Therefore, we know that in the event that the Teutons should succeed in Europe, they would attempt to practice the same devastation and cruelty upon our own country that they have done in Europe, and therefore we know that in fighting on European soil we are fighting to prevent those terrible things happening in our own land.

Now to fight these battles on European soil we are sending the flower of the youth of our country. The selective draft law takes men from 21 to 31. It takes them from all walks of life—our own husbands, brothers, sweethearts and friends.

At the present time there are about two millions of men under arms, but there will soon be more, and the time is not far distant perhaps, when there may be five millions of American troops either at the front or in training.

At the present time there is hardly a person in America who has not one or more relatives or acquaintances in uniform.

Now, while these men are offering up their lives at the front or preparing to go there, what are we at home going to do? Are we going to be patriots or slackers?

Bear in mind that any person who can do anything at all to support these men and does not do it is a slacker.

The war-savings plan permits every man, woman and child to take a financial interest in the war. Save 25 cents and buy a Thrift stamp. Do it again and again, until you have 16 of them, then add 14 cents in and get a War Savings stamp, redeemable at $5 at maturity, which gives 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly. If necessity requires that you should cash this War Savings stamp at any time, you get your investment, plus 3 per cent.

Men and women throw away money in unnecessary expenditures which, if invested in War Savings stamps, would help to win the war.

We should do everything in our power to help, but by all means we should buy Thrift stamps and War Savings certificates, because it means not only to give the government money, but to give our loyalty to the nation in its time of need and to divert industry and labor to war productions and purposes.

But someone says the cost of living is high and it is hard to make both ends meet. True. But how about the extravagances? When you spend your money to go to a picture show and see the war pictures thrown on the screen, stop and think whether you have contributed anything to support your men who are engaged in those terrible conflicts. Can you go to bed at night and sleep soundly when you know that you are not making any sacrifice to support the men who are offering their lives for destruction in the most hideous forms of war that the world has ever known? The casualty list is beginning. Our men are occupying a little of the battle-front in France. From now on the list of killed and maimed will grow. Can you read these things in the newspapers, including possibly future sinkings of transports loaded with our troops, and feel content that you have done nothing or as little as you can?

The time is now here when every person must line up for or against the nation and its cause. War Savings certificates and Thrift stamps will be the credentials of patriotism without which an individual will have no right to claim to be an American. Don't forget this! Don't be a slacker!

NEXT SATURDAY MARCH 30 TO BE HOSPITAL TAG DAY

Next Saturday, March 30th, the day before Easter, will be Newark Hospital Tag day.

The work will be under the direction of the Twentieth Century club, an organization of twelve young women who during the past five years have rendered valuable service for the hospital.

Beginning in 1913 the dozen little girls who comprised the membership in the club gave a garden party which netted $105 for the hospital. Their success encouraged them to try other means of raising money for the hospital and each year their efforts have met with success. Last year on Tag day they raised $429 and they are hopeful of doing even better this year. The money obtained has been used to furnish the baby ward, help to equip the nurses home and to provide equipment for the laboratory and the domestic science department.

The Twentieth century club members were children when they began their good work for the hospital and with the advance of years the results obtained are more pronounced. Miss Mildred Simpson is president, Miss Helen Norpell secretary and Miss Laura Beggs treasurer of the club.

In conducting Tag day next Saturday the club will have assistance from a number of other young women in order that everybody may have an opportunity to wear a tag and thus help to support one of the city's most worthy institutions. The date remember, is Saturday, March 30th.

Keep Home Garden Fertile; Clean Out All Rubbish

 IN YOUR HOME GARDEN.
 "Dig deep, manure well, work often." Thus Pliny the Elder, nearly 2,000 years ago, summed up gardening. His advice is good today.
 Enthusiasm must be backed by solid purpose—enough of it to surmount obstacles and survive disappointments.
 The best insurance against accidents in gardening is knowing how to garden.

The garden should always be cleaned up in the autumn as soon as the crops are out of the way, and the area seeded to some green crop such as winter oats or rye. If this has not been done the dead vines, hibernating insects, as well as loosening up the soil, breaking down clods and making the soil generally more loose and friable. Soil that has been plowed or spaded, moreover, will dry out and become workable sooner than that not so treated.

Lighten Heavy Soil.
 If the soil is at all heavy it is advisable to make an application of air-slacked lime as soon as the plowing is done. The lime should be applied at this time so as to become thoroughly mixed with the soil before the manure is applied. Manure and lime should not be applied at the same time, as the lime will cause loss of the nitrogen in the manure.

To produce satisfactory crops of vegetables the soil must be kept in a high state of fertility. It is an excellent plan to apply stable manure to the freshly plowed or spaded soil, this to be worked in either with cabbage stalks and other refuse should be gathered at once and burned. This material is liable to harbor insects and contain diseases injurious to garden crops, and no chances should be taken with it.

Provide Good Drainage.

If the area in the garden is not well drained this should be corrected by using tile drains spaced every 10 to 20 feet, or by open ditches, or by heading up the soil, leaving the space between the beds for drains. The ground should be plowed as soon as possible. If hard freezing is sure to occur after the plowing is done it does not matter if the ground is a little wet. It is particularly desirable to get the plowing done before

THE LYRIC.

All This Week.
The Jolly Folly Maids, featuring Ben Norris and Jack LaMont, will hold the boards this week at the Lyric, and from all reports is one of the best and most combinations booked here this season. Ben Norris is late of the Oh, Johnny Oh Company, and an all-around comedian of ability, who will no doubt be remembered by patrons of the Lyric as the funny Irish cop in Peck's Bad Boy which played to capacity business there in 1914. Jack LaMont will also be remembered as the exceptionally funny, low comedian who played the Lyric last summer with "Rose Red Girls" company. Both comedians are surrounded with a capable cast, including Lee Richey, the fellow with a personality, who is a clever straight man, as well as a singer of ability, and Evelyn Pattillo, the girl with a big voice, who is a lyric soprano singer of note, singing popular ballads of the better class in a manner that pleases, also an incomparable chorus of five pretty, attractively costumed girls who can sing and dance extremely well. The opening bill is a military travesty entitled, "Stranded on the Border" and from all reports is one of the funniest bills ever presented in tabloid form, full of funny situations, and teeming with novelties, special scenery being used for each and every bill.

GRAND.

Earle Williams.

Earle Williams, Grace D'Armond, Arthur Miles, Denton Hale, Julia Swayne Gordon, Robert Gaillard and Temple Saxe form the all-star cast in "The Hillman," an adaptation from "The Hillman," the novel by E. Phillips Oppenheim. "Confusion to all women" was his toast, but he came down from his frozen heights when a beautiful London actress named a champion for her reputation. A great star in a great story by a world-famous author at the Grand tonight and tomorrow.

AUDITORIUM.

Major Wood Endorses He-Making of a Nation.

Even a soldier—a soldier who has been "over the top"—can pause long enough from his Hun-hunting to dash off a few thousand words and successfully break into print. When this was pointed out to Major Eric Fischer Wood, who was seen at Camp Sherman yesterday in connection with the engagement of "The Remarkings of a Nation," he replied:

"Well to get even, the newspapermen might pause from their writing long enough to do a little Hun-hunting."

Major Wood is the author of several articles which appeared some time ago in the Saturday Evening Post. He would not talk about his writing, however, as a matter of fact anything save the discussion of the camp picture did not interest him.

"Ohio should indeed be proud of the fact that Washington commended the efforts of Major General Glenn in bringing the great camp virtually into the homes of those interested in the soldiers," said Major Wood.

"The division heads of the general staff, Mr. George Creel, chairman of the bureau of public information and 200 members of the senate and house of representatives witnessed the initial showing."

"The officials were pleased beyond measure at the thorough treatment of Camp Sherman soldier life. They very strongly commended the direction of the picture but even more the definite psychology and splendid purpose displayed in the treatment."

"The remarkable idea of the picture was originated and fostered by Major General Glenn. He had readily foreseen that results must not only be accomplished in the camp, but also back home."

"The army is the first, the people back home are the muscle and pep behind the punch. In order to exert the full force of the men in the field, the home folks must willingly render their heartfelt support."

"Wait until you see the pictures; you are going to enjoy them thoroughly. They take him through the early stages of the life at Camp Sherman; they show him in his drill and in his hours of leisure."

Norma Talmadge.
S. Z. Poll, the New England theatrical magnate, opened his magnificent new house, "The Palace" in New Haven with a showing of Norma Talmadge's successful production "The Secret of the Storm Country." Miss Talmadge's subsequent release, "Ghosts of Yesterday" will be shown at the Auditorium today and tomorrow. In selecting one of Select Star Series photodrama, Mr. Poll echoed the verdict of scores of exhibitors who have invariably had such pleasantly profitable showings of these pictures.

People prominent in the amusement world had come from New York, Boston, and Philadelphia in order to help Mr. Poll make a night of it. Immediately after the opening chorus by a group of New Haven girls, the well known Pat Casey surprised Miss Talmadge by calling on her to speak to the audience, which packed the house to rafters. She "blessed" and stepping before the footlights, thanked the enthusiastic film fans for their kindly greeting, and also Mr. Poll for choosing her picture for such an auspicious occasion. Roscoe Arbuckle in "The Bell Boy," also the Hearst-Pathe News will be added features.

"The Bell Boy."

The laughing hit of the Auditorium program yesterday of course was, Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, who together with Al St. John, Buster Keaton, Alice Lake, Joe Keaton and others were seen in the Paramount-Arbuckle latest comedy, "The Bell Boy," which is a genuine laugh provoker, and in which Arbuckle makes the most of everything the role offers. In the village of Ouch-Gosh he presides at the Elkhorn Hotel as bellboy, waiter, barber, elevator operator and general utility man. It's the best Arbuckle comedy so far shown and is seen today for the last time, together with Norma Talmadge, who appears in "The Ghosts of Yesterday," a Select Picture from the Hearst-Pathe News is also shown.

Arch Leedy Night.

Wednesday night, Arch Leedy Night at the Auditorium theatre and on that occasion, Manager Feenberg will give away absolutely free, $25.00 in Thrift and Saving Stamps. The picture for the day is Eva Tanguay in "The Wild Girl," a Select Pictures Corp. special feature. All engagements for that evening should be cancelled and your attendance at the Auditorium would be appreciated.

Charles Ray.

Possessing a variety of talents aside from the histrionic, Charles Ray, star in forthcoming Paramount-Ince productions, does not limit his activities to the studio lot. He excels in all forms of athletics, takes a keen interest in electrical experiments, is an apt student of French and Spanish, and, for his own amusement, writes stories whenever inspired by a particularly good idea.

He came under the direction of Thos. H. Ince three years ago, following two years' experience with repertoire companies on the road. He appeared for some time in two or three reel pictures, in which he was required to perform all manner of hazardous feats. Then he flashed into stardom over night in the titular role of "The Cowboy." Critics at once proclaimed him a remarkable "find" for the screen. Their opinions were strongly substantiated by his splendid work in his succeeding pictures. "His Mother's Boy," Ray's latest Paramount picture, will appear for the first time this city at the Auditorium theatre on next Friday and Saturday.

Eva Tanguay.

Eva Tanguay as headliner at the Auditorium theatre next Wednesday promises to be one of the season's sensations. She will be seen in "The Wild Girl," a Selznik production, distributed by Select. In which Harry Weber presents her to the public for the first time on the screen. The role of Firefly, the wild girl, gives Miss Tanguay a character in which she is completely at home, and her interpretation of the part leaves nothing to be desired. Left with a tribe of wandering gypsies who had been her father, Firefly is brought up as a boy. Only the old chief and the woman to whom he had been devoted, she knows the secret of her sex. The fact that she will inherit a large Virginia estate on coming of age makes her a valuable possession and she is indulged in every way.

"Mutt and Jeff's Divorce," which comes to the Auditorium on Thursday for one performance, is hailed as the banner laugh show of the year. No one lives who can withstand the laugh appeal of the team in print, in the cartoons or their author, Bud Fisher. Everyone who has reveled in the stage antics of the duo since the made their bow before the footlights, knows how exasperatingly amusing they can be. In their newest medium they are said to outclass anything in which they have before appeared.

This is a return engagement. The company is different than the one which appeared here before. Seats ready Tuesday.

New Features.
Starting with tomorrow and for two days every week thereafter, the Bud Fisher "Mutt and Jeff" comedies, as released through the William Fox exchange, and they are the very latest, will be shown at the Auditorium theatre. For tomorrow and Wednesday, "The Bell Boy" is first with the Fox company is shown. These comedies are said to be better than ever and should not be missed.

Wednesday and Thursday.
On Wednesday and Thursday at the Alhambra a new World-Picture Brady-Made will be shown. This picture bears the title of "Broken Ties" and three big stars are seen in the production. They are June Elvidge, Montagu Love and Arthur Ashley. All three of these famous and popular players are seen in effective roles.

The story deals with the distressing situation in which a high minded, conscientious attorney is placed through his deep sense of duty. He feels it his duty to do everything possible to help his client's cause and he does this even when in fighting out a murder of which one of his clients is accused, the trail leads him to his wife and it appears that she is the guilty party.

The characterizations in this production are effective.

Resinol
"would clear her skin"
"She would be a pretty girl, if it wasn't for that pimply, blotchy complexion!"

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG
It's Easy—If You Know Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets
The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must reach your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bitous look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.
Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that embersence of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.
You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 30c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Y. M. C. A.

A statement of the stewardship of the Trustees of the Newark Y. M. C. A. for two years from April 1, 1916 to April 1, 1918.

In June, 1916, we asked the people of Newark and Licking county to contribute to the Newark Y. M. C. A. a sum of $30,000 which was to be payable over a period of 18 months, ending December, 1917. We promised the citizens of Newark and Licking county, if this sum was paid into our hands that we would do the following:

1. Pay the expenses of the campaign..... $ 1,500.00
2. Pay the operating expenses of the Association for two years ending April 1, 1918. Estimated at..... 7,000.00
3. Pay the floating indebtedness of the Association..... 2,791.50
4. Pay the interest on the mortgage indebtedness until paid, amounting to..... 800.00
5. Pay off the mortgage indebtedness of the Association amounting to..... 18,000.00

Total needed..... $30,091.90

The citizens of Newark and a few residents outside of Newark responded to this appeal, and funds were pledged to the amount of $30,074.00.

We have received on these pledges $25,395.92 which has been disbursed as follows:

1. Campaign expenses..... $ 1,498.66
2. Operating expenses for two years..... 6,039.40
3. Floating indebtedness..... 2,791.90
4. Interest on mortgage loan..... 941.82
5. Payment on mortgage indebtedness..... 14,000.00
6. Collection of pledges..... 26.00

Total disbursements..... $25,297.78

Balance on hand..... 98.14

Owing to the large shrinkage in pledges, due very largely to conditions brought about by war, which were unforeseen and unavoidable, we have been unable to carry out our original plans with respect to the complete cancellation of the mortgage indebtedness.

The unpaid balance at this time being..... $4,000.00

The unpaid pledges amount to..... 4,679.08

The expense of publishing this statement is paid, not out of Association funds, but by the undersigned trustees.

We, the trustees of the Newark Y. M. C. A., make this statement to the public in order that you may be fully advised as to our stewardship during the past two years and that you may be fully informed as to the financial condition of the Y. M. C. A. when we come to you asking for your financial support for the year ending April 1, 1919.

The budget we have adopted for carrying on the work for the fiscal year ending April 1, 1919, calls for a total disbursement of $8,139.60.

Estimated receipts from memberships and rentals for the year will be..... $3,775.00

Leaving an amount necessary from public subscriptions of..... 4,364.60

Y. M. C. A. Notes

Everybody welcome to hear our city pastors. Messages appropriate for the times will be given. Services at 7:30. Special music. Don't miss these meetings.

Y. M. C. A. men have been busy this last week helping the war-chest committee organize the county out-side Newark into a permanent force, which will handle not only all gift-subscriptions to the war cause, but will also sell Liberty bonds and Thrift stamps.

Gymnasium classes are busy with competition stunts. The work of the past winter is showing in the records which are being made both by individuals and teams.

The senior class basketball team has undertaken to entertain the Camp Sherman Sammies at a basket-ball pink tea, Saturday night. All lovers of this game should witness this one at the high school floor, Fourth and Greenwich streets.

Fourteen boys were seen in the street about 10 o'clock the other night, engaged in what appeared to be base-ball training. They evidently had Christie Mathewson "ambitions," and were either working overtime, or afraid they were forcing the season. Come out into the daylight, boys, and loosen up. The "Y" will have a team or two this summer.

Look for something great in the bird-house contest; it is awakening interest. Newark has the birds—let it plan to keep them. Make it so pleasant for them that they will not have to move and leave us cheerless.

Oscar Bishop won the intermediate "A" contest in the gym. Howard Lindeman finished second with 20 points less than the winner. Green leads in the intermediate "B" contest, and Quinn in the juniors. It is too early to pick winners in these last two named classes as only two events have been staged, out of 15. Bill Davis leads the cadet B's, with Don Jordan a close second. Davis has 103 points, and Jordan 99. Eight feet is the record made in the junior class standing-broad, and 15 seconds in the 20-yard swim. The cadets produced the following records: Seven and one-half standing-broad; pull-up 14 times.

The men's noonday meetings are looked forward to as being productive of much good. Every member should encourage attendance.

BAD COLD? TAKE "CASCARETS" FOR BOWELS TONIGHT

No Headache, Sour Stomach, Bad Cold or Constipation by Morning.

Get a 10-cent box. Colds—whether in the head or any part of the body—are quickly overcome by urging the liver to action and keeping the bowels free of poison. Take Cascarets tonight and you will wake up with a clear head and your cold will be gone. Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember the quickest way to get rid of colds is one or two Cascarets at night to cleanse the system. Get a 10-cent box at any drug store. Don't forget the children. They relish this Candy Cathartic and it is often all that is needed to drive a cold from their little system.

CHAS. W. FAIRBANKS HONORED AT MARION BY LODGE OF ELKS

Seventy-nine candidates were initiated into the Marion Lodge of Elks, Thursday evening—making a total of 240 initiated during the past year, and bringing the total membership of Marion lodge up to over 1000.

A boom was launched for District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Chas. W. Fairbanks for president of the State Association of Elks, and it came as a great surprise to that gentleman, who had no advance knowledge of the action taken by his brothers.

Mr. Fairbanks has many friends in this city who sincerely trust that the honor of representing the state may go to him. He is eminently fitted for the high office and the state association would receive great impetus under his guidance.

James S. Richardson of Cincinnati, was endorsed for the office of grand secretary, and a large Cincinnati delegation was present at the meeting, as well as many other distinguished Elks from over the state.

THE PEACH CROP IS REPORTED KILLED

Peach trees that have suffered killing of the blossom buds only should be cut back some what severely, especially in the case of high and long branched trees. With no crop to be harvested this year it presents an opportunity to reduce the size of the trees without loss of income. It is impossible at this time to tell how severely the wood has been injured although in some cases the wood is brown and shriveled now, which leaves no doubt as to its condition. This wood may be removed without hesitation, cutting back into apparently healthy bark and wood. In other instances, the wood seems only damaged, and the tree may have enough vitality to overcome it. This makes a definite recommendation as to the extent of pruning covering the general condition impossible. A few weeks later, the amount of the injury will become more apparent. This suggests the advisability, where practical, of deferring the pruning for a little while. It must be made certain, however, that these trees are pruned some time, for if not, the result will probably be that the trees will have a very uneven and unsymmetrical growth owing to the fact that portions of individual trees have suffered unequal degrees of injury, the better conditioned parts thus developing rapidly, while the more damaged parts do little or nothing. Where trees show live buds on live wood, the pruning may be delayed if desired until the bloom shows. This will enable the grower to calculate his prospects and prune back just sufficiently to thin his crop to advisable proportions and to keep his trees as low and as symmetrical as possible. The safest recommendation in the case of injured trees is to do some pruning but to do it in moderation. That is, remove from a third to a half if the tops. These are advices from R. B. Crickshank, assistant professor of horticulture. The Cynical Bachelor rises to remark that after a man is married his troubles never come singly.

DUTCH OFFICIALS' COMMENT ON THE SHIP SEIZURE

The Hague, Friday, March 22.—
Seizure of Dutch shipping by the allied governments was unjust, Dr.
Looijen, the Dutch foreign minister declared today in the upper chamber.
"Without a shred of justice," he said, "the associated governments have carried out the proposal, all the Dutch government in its reply went as far as possible to meet the demands of the associated powers.
The resounding protest of the government will find an echo in the two chambers and among the whole Dutch people. It is a protest imbued with the principle of right. The government will not have to reproach itself, if the country is subjected to severe trials, with not having done its utmost to prevent this injustice."
The second chamber passed unanimously a bill providing for the drainage of the Zuider Zee.
In the upper chamber Senator J.
T. Cremer attacked the United States after the foreign minister had completed his statement. The senator recalled the Hudson-Fulton celebration in New York to commemorate the discovery of the Hudson river.
"A committee was sent to America," he said, "and the speaker who represented the Dutch government was received with cheers by the Americans when he made a speech commemorating the achievements of his Dutch ancestors. Then the Americans had tears in their eyes when they saw our flag. The eyes of Americans have no tears to shed now over the dishonor of our flag.
"America regards neutrality as parishausship. We refused to furnish war materials to the allies—that is the head and front of our offending."

Senator Cremer asked what flag would be flown from the seized ships and said he hoped it would not be the Dutch flag, but if that flag was used, he hoped it would be hoisted at half mast. Referring to President Wilson, the senator declared:
"President Wilson calls himself our friend! We'll heaven preserve us from our friends!"
The senator said he hoped the Dutch would not take reprisals, which could be carried out easily, against the unfortunate interned prisoners in Holland, but they should render good for evil. He concluded:
"Our free and proud nation should prove that in these days of brutality the Dutch are the only gentlemen remaining in Europe."

Other speakers also criticized President Wilson. Deputy Van Kel, a socialist, said:
— "The seizure of the Dutch fleet by President Wilson under the pretext of war necessity, is as bad as the violation of Belgium by Germany on the same pretext. We will maintain our independence, come what may.
The American people have been misinformed and their indignation will be great when they learn the truth."
"The government had too much faith in the friendly speeches of former American Minister Van Dyke," declared Deputy Hooft, an anti-revolutionist. "To our shame the government has not considered that often a wolf disguises himself in sheep's clothing. America has followed the practice of a brigand by holding a pistol at our head. The associated governments have acted like common thieves."

TO BE EXPECTED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, March 23.—A report that influential interests at Rotterdam have commenced agitation to have the Dutch government requested to break off relations with the United States because of the requisitioning of Dutch merchantmen is contained in an Exchange Telegraph company's dispatch received from Copenhagen which quotes the Politiken's Rotterdam correspondent.

STATE MEETING OF ALL BANKERS AT CLEVELAND

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, March 23.—As a result of the meeting here last Wednesday of bankers representing 19 counties of northeastern Ohio, a committee appointed at that time has recommended to the Ohio State Bankers' Association at Columbus, that a general meeting of all bankers in the state be called, either next Wednesday or Thursday.
The purpose of the state meeting will be to bring together all the bankers, especially the country bankers, to discuss the various problems that confront them owing to unusual conditions occasioned by the war. It was brought out at Wednesday's meeting that many bankers felt that they must curtail on either loans in order to take care of Liberty bonds and other demands and that in consequence the farmers were not receiving as liberal a line of credit as is needed for this year's crop production.
The call for the meeting will be sent out by Robert H. Schryver, secretary of the Ohio Bankers' Association, after approval has been granted by the organization.

DAVID KAPPES, A WELL KNOWN WRITER, DIES AT COLUMBUS

Zanesville, March 23.—David B.
Kappes, a former resident of this city, and a popular and talented newspaperman, died at a Columbus hospital at an early hour Friday.
Death followed a nervous breakdown, suffered over a year ago as a result of too close application to professional duties.
Mr. Kappes was 38 years of age and a native of this city. After receiving his education in the Zanesville public schools he entered the newspaper profession as a reporter on the Zanesville Signal, later becoming a member of the editorial staff of the Daily Courier. After severing his connection with the Courier he went to Carrollton, Ohio, where he edited and published the small envelopes or secure such supplies elsewhere.

We have the time and space for a large planting of samples.

New York, March 23.—The news of further German aggression on the western front was a influence in today's stock market, stocks reacting at the opening. Reading, Mexico

Texas Company, Central Leather and General Electric fell a point each.
Other active war shares, equipments and specialties sustained large fractional losses. Rails, a group, were but slightly affected.

GRANVILLE

(Special to The Advocate.)
Granville, O., March 23.—As the close of a remarkable season of choral work in Granville and as a most impressive preparation for the Passion week services to be held each evening next week by the combined churches, the presentation of Strainer's "The Crucifixion" last evening in the Baptist church, was notable. A large audience, which ought to have been a crowd, was present and joined in the singing of two hymns at the invitation of the pastor, Dr. Brelsford, who spoke a few words in explanation of the program. The concert platform was used and the seating of the chorus was most effective, the soloists alone occupying the choir loft. Prof. E.
P. Johnston, chorister of the Baptist church, directed and his reading disclosed a reverence and feeling which were imported to the singers in a wonderful degree. The choruses were sung with full volume and precision of attack and at the same time with admirable diction which left no one guessing at the meaning. "Fling Wide the Gates," "God So Loved the World," "The Appeal of the Crucifixion," were given with almost dramatic expression. Prof. Eschman at the organ interpreted the accompaniment faultlessly. Mr. Soule in the tenor part was as always, expressive and satisfying. His voice meets every demand and he uses it always with intelligence, and as in last night's program, with deep reverence. Mr. Young, Mrs. Donnelly and Mr. Chedde were at their excellent best in the bass and baritone solos.
There was poignant feeling in the closing measures, as delivered by Mr. Soule in muted tones: "And He Bared His Head and Gave Up the Ghost," and the audience, after the benediction by Dr. Brelsford, left the church almost in silence.

The missionary organization of the Baptist church held their annual "extra" in the social rooms yesterday to listen to financial reports which proved most gratifying. The foreign apportionment was more than met, the home apportionment just "making the top." New circle leaders were announced and the officers for the coming year were welcomed by the re-elected president, Mrs. E.
E. Hopkins. They were: First vice president, Mrs. Barrington; second vice president, Mrs. Norris; secretary, Mrs. W. H. Johnson; treasurer, Mrs. Bielefeld. Following the business, a social hour with a guessing contest was enjoyed.

That public-spirited citizen, James
A. Huston, who owns a large farm southwest of town, and is interested in the financial condition of the country "after the war," has rented the opera-house for one night, in the near future and will exhibit at his own expense a free moving picture of pedigreed cattle, of which full accounts will appear in the papers.
Phi Gamma Delta hospitably entertained with a Pan-Hellenic smoker at their lodge last evening and a rousing good time is reported. Prof.
Charles B. White, a Phi Gam alumnus, delivered an address on "Collegiate Comity," before one hundred Denison "Greeks." A man's supper was served and a modicum of "the makings" went up in smoke.

Mrs. Charles Avery was hostess for the regular meeting of the W. C.
T. U. at her home, South Pearl street, Friday afternoon. There was a large attendance and much interest manifested in the miscellaneous program, led by Mrs. H. A. Nixon.
Twelve members gave brief summaries of temperance activities during each of the 12 months past. Mrs.
John McLain, the president, presided at the business session, and a delightful extra number was furnished by Mrs. B. F. Crawford, who sang a ballad to the accompaniment of Mrs.
Alice Montgomery.

Palm Sunday sermons will be preached in all the church tomorrow morning. At 7 p. m., the churches will unite in services in charge of the women, with Dr. Catherine Mabie, a returned missionary, as speaker. Music will be furnished by the Women's Music club, under the direction of Mrs. C. B. White.
During Passion week, the churches will unite in services at 7 o'clock each evening. The program will follow the last week of Christ's earthly ministry through the crucifixion and leading to the Easter Message of Victory. Monday, March 25, Baptist church, men's meeting, addressed by Rev. S. S. Palmer; Tuesday, March 25, Presbyterian church, "The Day of Controversy"; Wednesday, March 27, Methodist church, "The Day of Retirement"; Thursday, March 28,
Baptist church, Rev. C. B. McKee,
Mexico City, Mex.; Friday, March 29, Presbyterian church, "The Day of Suffering."

WILL OUTLINE PLANS TO THE COMMITTEE FOR WAR CHEST DRIVE

This evening at six o'clock the eight divisions of the city, representing the War Work committee will dine at the K. of P. hall and the plans for the work this week will be outlined. The committee is composed of 208 men who have agreed to give their time to this work without any pay whatever. The supper and all other expenses of the campaign are being financed by a number of the citizens of the city, so all money subscribed to the war fund will go for that purpose.

The work this week will be of a preliminary nature and will consist of making a survey of the city. In this way the committee will obtain information that must be had before a successful campaign can be carried on. The members of the various divisions will visit every home in the city some time during the week, between the hours of 5 and 7:30 o'clock in the afternoon and evening. Every resident of the city is asked to be at their homes between these hours during the week and in this way they will be doing their part of the work.

WILL COMPLETE EXAMINATION OF SELECTS TUESDAY

The examination of the balance of the men in class one will be held on Tuesday morning on the third floor of the Memorial building, starting promptly at 8 o'clock. This will complete the examination of the men in this class with the exception of a few, who are out of the city.

The local board stated this morning that this examination would probably make a change in the list, who are to go to camp next Saturday,
of about five men as these men passing the physical examination will be listed according to their order numbers.

The 29 men from the city and the 24 from the county will leave Newark for Camp Sherman at 12:55 o'clock Saturday afternoon, March 30 and will arrive at the camp at 4:40 o'clock.

MUST COMPLY WITH ORDINANCES OR ELSE SUBJECT TO A FINE

In keeping with the intention of the city officials to enforce the ordinances and laws governing the driving of motor vehicles, a number of drivers have been again ordered to appear before the chief of police.
On a first offense they are being warned, but on a second hearing will be fined.

Tags, denoting the infraction of the law are placed on the cars. Special emphasis is placed on the law forbidding the parking of machines in front of a theater or near a water plug. No machines are to be parked in front of theaters or motion picture houses of any kind.

The mayor has given until April 10, for all rigs and vehicles to be fitted with lights. Failure to have a light on any kind of a vehicle after that time will mean the arrest of the offender.

UTICA SOLDIER PRAISES WORK OF THE RED CROSS

A report has been circulated that some of the soldiers at our army camps were receiving as many as six sweaters from the Red Cross. To secure a refutation of this statement one of the officers of the Utica branch wrote to her brother at Camp
Dix. His reply follows:

Camp Dix, N. J.

Dear Sister:
In regard to your letter asking if it were true that the boys had more sweaters than they needed and did not appreciate the women's work. If the Red Cross sends them to a company the supply sergeant gives each soldier one, you have to sign up for it, when it wears out you turn it in. If it not they charge you for it. The same with any of the clothes we get.
All is charged up. If worn out we get new. If you destroy any they charge you for it, otherwise the men might tear them up to get new.

Now the Red Cross gave me mine and when the first inspection came, they took note of what clothes I had,
such as underclothes, socks, shirts, etc. They gave me three suits of underclothes, one half pairs of socks, two shirts and two pairs of shoes;
any time a garment wears out we turn it in and get new, but when they give out sweaters, the fellows who didn't have them got them and those of us who did, didn't receive any, so you see how it is. They gave me one uniform and I have to press it every week. For selling clothes there is a fine and if you can't give account of it you have to pay for it even if they don't catch you selling it. The Red Cross sent us rubbers for our dress shoes last week and they are just the thing. It was the Red Cross from New York. Now as far as I have gone, the soldiers that I have seen speak well of the Red Cross. They use us fine and we always give three cheers for them.

When we came from Du Bois and came to New York on our way to Fort Stocum, who was there at New York, with coffee and sandwiches to feed us but the Red Cross. The same in Philadelphia and New Rochelle.
When we left Fort Stocum the Red Cross was there with hot coffee, oranges and four sandwiches, to have on our way to the fort, so don't let any one tell you that the Red Cross is no good, for I don't believe it.
This is what we had for supper tonight, not so bad: Mashed potatoes, steak, creamed tomatoes, peas, bread butter, sugar, cocoa and ice cream.
Dinner: Boiled potatoes, gravy, ham-berg, corn, chow chow, rice pudding, tea, sugar, bread and butter.
Goodbye, from your brother, Leo McAllice, Battery E, 309 H. F. A.,

DO YOUR "BIT" TO PROMOTE THE HEALTH OF THE NATION

What to Do for Winter Ills and Other Sickness; How to Be Healthy.

"The war," said a public official recently, "has awakened the people to the fact that conservation of health is quite as important as conservation of foodstuffs and when combined with the other will do much to help win the war. This will result in a healthier, happier people."

"An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure," for by maintaining health, efficiency is at its best. For 23 years Hull's Superlative has been doing a wonderful work and has been heralded as the world's greatest remedy because thousands of men and women have been restored to health by taking it after having tried in vain to get relieved in other ways.

Hull's Superlative is prescribed by many physicians today as it contains in highly concentrated form the very elements required by the body to restore health and strength, and it is because of these invaluable elements that stomach and nerve disorders, also colds, grip, tonsillitis and other contagious ailments vanish in a

Berlin Claims To Have Captured 45,000 Men; Great Battle Continues Along Western Front

LONG RANGE GUN RESUMES PARIS ATTACK

Start Bombarding at 6:30 O'Clock This Morning Doing But Little Damage

INTRODUCE NEW SYSTEM OF ALARM TO WARN INHABITANTS

American Marine Wounded By One of the Shells Saturday

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Paris, March 25.—Twenty-four shells reached Paris on Saturday and twenty seven yesterday. The interval between shots was reduced from fifteen to twenty minutes on Saturday to an average of nine minutes yesterday.

On two occasions there was an interval of only one or two minutes. Shells fell at 9:15 and 9:16 o'clock and at 9:45 and 9:47. This was accepted as confirming the theory that at least two guns were firing. The time of flight of the shells is estimated at ten minutes at the least; the curve traversed at 120 miles and the maximum height attained at 15 miles.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Paris, March 25.—The long-range bombardment of Paris was resumed at 6:30 o'clock this morning, but was interrupted after the second shot.

After a brief interval two more shots were fired. The bombardment was again suspended at 9:10 o'clock as was the case yesterday. The people did not take to shelter. Colliers which were filled on Saturday remained empty this morning. Little interest was shown in the bombardment.

Soon after they were awakened by the first shot the people were brought to their windows by the rattling of drums. Policemen circulated through each quarter of the city. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3.)

BRITISH REPULSE POWERFUL ATTACKS NORTH OF BAPAUME

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, March 25.—Fresh attacks by the Germans have developed northward and southward of Bapaume, the war office announces. The British repulsed powerful attacks yesterday afternoon northward of Bapaume.

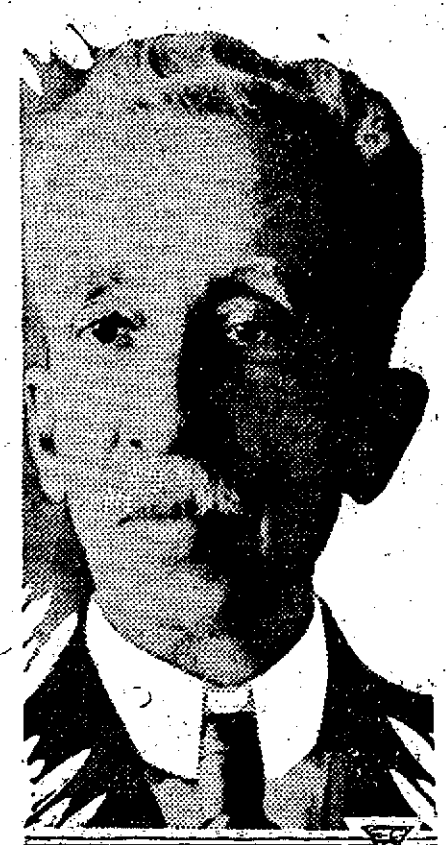

BRITISH WERE OUTNUMBERED EIGHT TO ONE IN THE GREAT OFFENSIVE NEAR ST. QUENTIN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) British Army Headquarters in France, Sunday, March 24.—The main thrust on the British right flank by the Germans, Thursday morning, was south of St. Quentin and the enemy used a division for every 2000 yards of the front, there being approximately one German division against every British battalion.

The purpose of the attack here was to capture Crevin and Essegny, Le Grand, and thereby acquire high ground for a further advance. It is now possible to give more details of the early stages of this and other fights. On the extreme right of the British line the enemy crossed the river Oise at two places. One body of troops came out of La Fere and swung north, while another army crossed at May and turned south to form a junction with the La Fere group. Throughout the day the battle raged in the lowlands against the Oise.

At Vendeuil, a group of British held out until 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. A little further north the Germans stormed Crevin and Essegny. Just west of St. Quentin, the British were forced to fall back, but throughout the day they clung to the Holnon wood, a little northwest of the city. South of St. Quentin a number of strong British redoubts made a gallant defense and it was nightfall be-

THIRD ATTEMPT TO DESTROY BIG BAKING PLANT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cleveland, March 25.—Federal authorities were convinced today that enemy alien plotters are determined to destroy the plant of the General Baking company here, following the third act of violence at the plant during the past week, causing losses totalling more than $50,000.

The latest attempt to destroy the plant occurred last night when fire was discovered in the building. The blaze was extinguished before any material damage was caused. Fire wardens said today the fire protection sprinkler system at the plant had been shut off, strengthening the theory that the fire was the work of plotters.

DUTCH CABINET IS PEEVED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, March 25.—The Dutch cabinet is said to have decided Sunday to send the allied powers a formal refusal of their offer of grain in return for Dutch ships, a dispatch from the Hague to the Daily Mail says.

AMERICANS ON TOUL SECTOR SHELL LINES

Fire is Effective and Several Trenches Have Been Taken

ENEMY BOMBARDS TOWN WITHIN AMERICAN LINES

New Variety of Bombs Being Used By Enemy Airplanes

With the American Army in France, Sunday, March 24.—American artillery on the Toul sector continued today to shell effectively enemy first line and communication trenches, the town of St. Baussant, and billets and dumps north of Boqueux. Many of the American shells have fallen in the German trenches and the first two lines in at least one place have been virtually abandoned.

One American patrol freely inspected this point in the enemy line without molestation last night and this morning and remained there several hours. There have been no contacts between the infantry during the last 24 hours.

For the third successive day German artillery today bombarded heavily with gas shells a certain town within the American lines. Today's bombardment was made in two periods, each a half hour in length. Many gas shells and a few high explosive shells fell on the American positions.

AMERICAN BOAT SUNK BY HUNS; CREW RESCUED

London, March 25.—The admiralty announces that the American steamer Chattahoochee, 5988 tons net, has been sunk by a German submarine off the English coast. Her crew of 78 was landed safely.

The master of the vessel states that the submarine fired a number of torpedoes, of which four struck the vessel.

SEIZED FROM GERMANS.

New York, March 25.—The steamship Chattahoochee, torpedoed off the English coast, was formerly the Hamburg-American liner Sachsen, and was one of the vessels seized by the United States when this country entered the war. She was built in 1911 at Belfast and was 470 feet long with a 58 foot beam.

THE AMERICAN CASUALTY LIST

Washington, March 25.—General Pershing's casualty list, which reached the war department late last night is as follows.

Died of accident: Private Anthony Ramanoski.

Died of disease: Sergeant John Hauston, Privates Franklin Cooper, Joseph F. Cover, Ernest L. Stafford.

Wounded severely: Private Jacob Brosz.

Wounded slightly: Lieutenant Royal Tharpe, Corporal Arnold Carico, Privates Carter A. Dillingham, William Dunsmuir, Charles L. Fuller, Albion O. Gross, James McDanielson, Mark A. Resnick, Dan Sanders, Major M. Shelton, Harry Shepherd, Barton L. Thornberry.

Previously reported missing, now reported as prisoner: Private Christian A. Sorenson.

Colonel Douglas Mac Arthur, chief of staff of the Rainbow division, was severely wounded.

AMERICAN ENGINEERS HAVE BEEN IN ACTION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, March 25.—The British Army Headquarters, March 25.—American engineers have again been in the throes of fierce conflict in which they have done excellent work in transportation.

The presence of the American engineers on the battlefield has long been known. They were praised highly for their gallantry in the battle of Cambrai last fall.

POWERFUL ATTACKS OF ENEMY REPULSED WITH HEAVY LOSSES IN GREAT BATTLE NOW RAGING

WILL OPPOSITION NEWS GATHERING ASSOCIATIONS GIVE CREDENCE TO THE BERLIN OFFICIAL STATEMENT ON BIG GUN?

Berlin, Mar. 25.—Paris has been bombarded by German long distance guns, according to the German official statement, issued Sunday night. That part of the statement which deals with the bombardment is as follows: "We have bombarded the fortress of Paris with long distance guns."

Paris, Mar. 25.—The huge gun that has been shelling Paris since Saturday is concealed in a forest 76 miles from the French capital. Ten-inch shells have been fired into Paris at frequent intervals. It is estimated that each shot costs $4,000. The announcement of the location of the gun is an official French statement.

FRENCH JOIN THE BRITISH IN DEFENSE OF WESTERN FRONT

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)

France has thrown the weight of her forces into the great battle raging with unexampled intensity on the western front and the British and French armies are now battling together against the onslaught of the common enemy in his desperate attempt to break through the allied line.

The British armies are holding fast along the line of the Somme and also in the region north of Bapaume. Field Marshal Haig reports today.

The Germans in their thrusts in the latter section reached the British trenches at only one point and there they were immediately ejected. Their assaults elsewhere were smothered by the British fire with great losses to the enemy.

On the Somme line bodies of German troops which had succeeded in forcing their way across the river between Licourt and Brie, south of Peronne, were driven back to the easterly bank. On both sides of the Bapaume the German attacks were repulsed today.

The greatest danger point at present seems to be further south, where the Germans apparently have driven through the greater width of the region they devastated in retiring in 1917, as the Paris statement today reports heavy fighting in the region of Noyon. This town itself is some 10 miles to the west of Chauny in the region of which Berlin yesterday reported the repulse of Franco-American reserves, but the German advance probably has been met considerably short of Noyon.

BAPAUME CAPTURED IN LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTING WHILE BRITISH DROVE BACK GERMAN TROOPS TO THE EASTERN BANKS OF RIVER SOMME

BRITISH ARTILLERY AND MACHINE GUNS CAUSE ENORMOUS LOSS OF LIFE TO ENEMY

Shock Troops of the Germans Reinforced By Artillery Completed Nearly One Hundred Army Divisions Used By the Enemy in St. Quentin Sector—Germans Fighting Under Great Strain, But Harder Fighting Than Has Yet Occurred Will Undoubtedly Follow—Although Outnumbered, In Some Places Eight to One, the British Are Holding Their Own Gallantly

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Berlin, Mar. 25 (British Admiralty Per Wireless.—The Germans are now standing to the north of the Somme in the middle of the former Somme battlefield says today's official statement. The statement also says Bapaume was captured in night fighting.

The British drove back to the eastern bank of the Somme bodies of German troops which had crossed the river between Licourt and Brie, south of Peronne.

The statement follows: "The battle continues with great violence on the whole front. Powerful attacks delivered by the enemy yesterday afternoon and evening north of Bapaume were heavily repulsed. Only at one point did the German infantry reach our trenches whence they were immediately thrown out. Elsewhere the enemy's attacks were stopped by rifle, machine gun and artillery fire in front of our positions and his troops were driven back with great losses.

"During the night and this morning fresh hostile attacks have again developed in this neighborhood and also to the south of Bapaume.

"South of Peronne bodies of German troops who had crossed the river between Licourt and Brie were driven back to the east bank by our counter attacks."

There seems small doubt but that the German attacking troops are dog weary, fighting under great strain; but this is mentioned merely as an interesting sidelight and not for the purpose of sounding a note of optimism. Harder fighting than has yet occurred undoubtedly will follow.

The British have been fighting with traditional stubbornness and at many points they have led the Germans back time after time although themselves greatly outnumbered.

Throughout the night there was fierce fighting north of Bapaume, along the Bapaume-Arras road, but except that Mory again changed hands the defenders held their own gallantly.

BIG HUN GUN KILLS 10 AND WOUNDS 15

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, March 25.—Ambassador Sharp stated today that the opinion had been expressed that the airplanes seem at a great height over Paris, Saturday, were there to observe the effect of the firing. The official statement, which the ambassador said, was published in the Paris press, March 23, was transmitted as follows: "The enemy had fired on Paris with a long-distance gun since 8 o'clock this morning, every quarter of an hour and 40 have reached the capital and suburbs. There are 10 dead and about 15 wounded. Means to combat the enemy gun are in the course of execution."

as sufficiently grave to warrant the continuance of preparations. Further formal deliberations between Japan and the principal allied powers, it is added, would be necessary in order to obtain absolute unanimity.

JAPS PREPARE INVASION INTO SIBERIA

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, March 25.—An Exchange Telegraph company dispatch from Tien Sien, China, dated Friday, says that the latest message from Tokyo declared that the Japanese government regarded the Siberian situation

as sufficiently grave to warrant the continuance of preparations. Further formal deliberations between Japan and the principal allied powers, it is added, would be necessary in order to obtain absolute unanimity.

OHIO WOMEN NEED ASSISTANCE FOR WORTHY PROJECT

The scope and magnitude of the work which Ohio women may be asked to do is as yet problematical but one piece of work has been clearly defined and undertaken and that is the building and equipping of suitable lodgings at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., for the accommodation of the families of the men who will from time to time be stationed there for it is said that Camp Sherman will be maintained not only during the period of the war but for many years.

This is a project which has received the unqualified approval of General Glenn and of the War Department at Washington.

The following telegraphic communication has been received:

Mrs. Ernest T. Johnson, Chairman of National Defense for Licking County, Youngstown's $20,000 dollars and Cleveland's $20,000 dollars which pays all obligations of the Community House and leaves $10,000 balance for new constructions and furnishings.

Unless we get balance of total $25,000 to start new lodge, we must discontinue our construction organization when just in sight of receipt of substantial remittances from all over the state.

Most anxious to start additional lodges before General Glenn's return and because urgently needed now. Can you help?

Capt. Alex. Laughlin, Jr. Doubtless many have decided to become supporters of this project but have not made their donation.

This message makes promptness urgent. It is desired that every woman in the state pay at least the minimum membership fee of one dollar.

BIG DRIVE ON

IN ATTENDANCE.

The big drive has been on for several weeks in the M. E. Berean Bible class of the First M. E. church, and it is expected to go "over the top" on Easter Sunday with an attendance of 100 or more men. Sixty-four men were present last Sunday. If the goal is reached and ambitions realized it will be due to the indefatigable work and enthusiasm of the teacher, Rev. Robert Northey, assisted by the membership committee. All men not attending church or Sunday school elsewhere are asked to get in line and join the throng. The class meets in the social room at 9:30 every Sunday and a committee is always on hand to greet you and make you feel at home. But the main feature is the study of God's word and applying the same to the age in which we live. The lessons are very helpful and inspiring and handled in a creditable manner by the teacher. Any thing that the teacher overlooks that is worth while is usually brought out by others of the men present. Come out Sunday and judge for yourself.

GLAD SUNDAY AT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

The special evangelistic services at the First Presbyterian church with R. L. Mitchell as chorus director and soloist and personal worker is attracting large congregations evening by evening. Sunday is to be a top-notch. Three great services are planned for the day and the capacity of the church will be taxed to the utmost. It is Palm Sunday and this will not be overlooked either in sermon or song. The first service of the day will be at 10:00 a. m. and Mr. Mitchell will have his big chorus choir at its best. Then at 2:30 p. m. a big mass meeting in the special evening service of the day will be held. The theme for the afternoon will be "The High Places" and sermon, song and spirit of the meeting will be full of attractive pep. Mitchell will sing "The Palm." This will be a great service with various special features. Then at 7:30 in the evening the spirit of the day will be crowded with a magnificent service, plus a half-hour song service in the big chorus choir with Mitchell at the head. You want to plan to be present at all three services. They will give you a vision and inspiration on which you will rejoice and feed many days. Mitchell will sing solos at each service.

There will be a mass meeting of the Young People's City Union Sunday afternoon at five o'clock at the Pine Street Christian Union church. Mrs. Florence Hatter will speak. There will be reports of nominating committee and election of officers. All the members of young people's societies are expected to attend.

NOONDAY MEETINGS FOR MEN WILL BE HELD NEXT WEEK

The Young Men's Christian Association has planned, with the help of a number of Newark ministers, to have a series of noon-day meetings for men during Passion week. These will be held in the Y. M. C. A. hall from 11:45 to 12:15 all next week, and will terminate with a Sunday afternoon meeting Easter-day. There will be good singing and special instrumental music at each meeting. The talks—20 minutes in length, will follow each other in sequence, and depict the last week in the life of the Son of God while here on earth.

Beginning Monday, March 25, Rev. Geo. B. Schmitt will tell how the Christ won the populace to Himself; the next day Rev. R. E. Carman will tell of the divine seal being placed on this Man by the voice from heaven. Wednesday, Rev. Lewis Franklin will relate the agony and betrayal of our Lord which took place in the garden of Gethsemane at the hands of Judas, and Rev. W. F. Harbert will show the face of His trial at the hands of a Roman governor, on Thursday. The crucifixion of the Man who went about doing good will be described by Rev. Don Tullis, Friday noon, and Rev. Mr. Hazlett will interpret the atonement which the Christ made, Saturday noon.

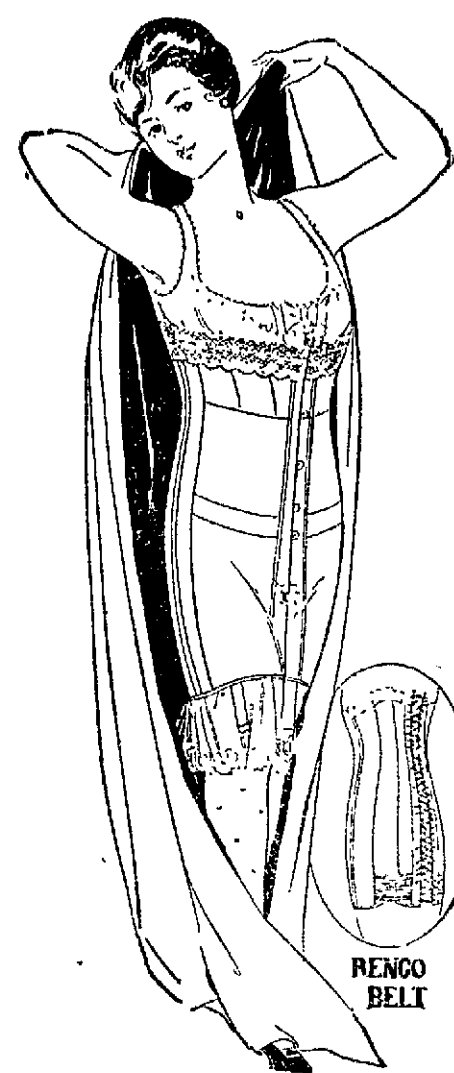

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Stull will preach on "Triumph of the Son of God." This meeting will conclude the series and will be evangelistic in character. No collections will be taken. The meetings are only for men, and will be adapted to the needs of busy men who have not long to tarry. Plan to attend them all: the subjects are vital to the lives of all men everywhere, in all ages and under all conditions.

THE LODGES

L. O. O. F.

There was a good attendance at Olive Branch lodge Tuesday evening. The initiatory degree was conferred at the regular meeting. Next Tuesday evening the first degree will be conferred and a good big turnout is requested. Visiting brothers are always welcome.

K. O. F.

Licking County, No. 1, will meet in regular assembly Wednesday evening, March 27. Following routine business the officers will release the new degree work, so let every Sir Knight be present.

More than 30,000 members of the order, wearing the uniform of the aims of the Lily, following the tri-colored banner, marching to the step of progress, pledged to loyalty, to country and flag, bound to each other with ties of friendship, cemented with love and riveted with charity, present to the American people a solid platform for good, for humanity, for peace on earth and for the dawn of the better age.

Newark Lodge.

Newark lodge met in regular session Thursday evening. One new application was received. The Esquire rank was conferred upon six candidates. The Knight rank will be conferred next Thursday evening upon a large class. Brother Frank Ryan presented the lodge with a "Roll of Honor" of the members who are serving their country. It is a beautiful piece of work and the lodge is very grateful to Brother Ryan.

The keeper of records and seal received a letter from Supreme Representative Charles Deckman, stating that Newark lodge had won one of the silk flags given for the largest numerical increase in membership for the year 1917.

Newark lodge made a gain of 47 members for the year 1917 and the membership is very proud of her record. In order to feel that good about our membership our first duty is to live up to the precepts of our order as taught by the ritual. We must emphasize our right and duty as equal partners in the lodge—business and ritualistic—of utility of our work and our power in all that goes to maintain the solvency of the lodge. Consequently, we must as partners, secure for our lodge a number of new members each year to offset the losses which come through suspensions and death. It has been said that the membership of the lodge in most all orders is a willing bunch. One half willing to do the work and the other half willing to let them do it. Do your bit in the lodge—it is the only true basis of partnership.

Roland Lodge.

A large crowd turned out on Tuesday evening to see the team of Newark Lodge, No. 12, confer the Page rank for Roland lodge. To say the work was well done is but to voice the judgment of all present. The dramatic version of the story of Damon and Pythias was excellent and evoked much faithful practice and hard work. The robes and settings were all that could be desired. There were 12 candidates, seven from Roland and five from Newark. After the work all repaired to the banquet room, where a choice oyster supper. Brother Frank Strear sang two songs and several of the candidates made short talks. The regular work of the lodge was attended to in short order prior to the degree work. One new application for membership was received and two elected to membership. An invitation was accepted from the Uniform Rank to attend services with them at St. Paul's Lutheran church on Sunday morning, April 7.

J. O. U. A. M.

Licking Council, No. 90, Jr. O. U. A. M. met in regular session last Thursday evening with an unusually good attendance and some visitors. After the usual routine of business a general discussion under good of order, it was decided to have a class initiation on April 25, the work to be put on by Zanessville Council No. 210. So, brothers, get busy and don't be on the losing side. Our new degree captain is working very hard to whip our new team into shape. Come out, brothers, and encourage him in the good work. A much delayed lecture on the order by our state council's deputy, Brother W. P. Wheeler, will be given at the next meeting night. Brothers, you will miss something good if you don't hear this lecture as Brother Wheeler has a treat in store for you. Next meeting night, March 28.

AMERICAN INSURANCE UNION.

Newark Chapter No. 24, A. I. U. met in regular session Thursday evening with an overflow attendance. Eleven applicants were presented and 14 candidates were given the ritualistic work by the Ladies' degree staff. The 100 mark has not yet been reached. We have 6 days left to secure 30 new members by May 1st.

Quite a few members were reported on the sick list, will the members living near these sick members call and give a word of cheer and look after their welfare if needs be. A friend in need is a friend indeed and is the best dividend ever paid by any insurance company or society.

A number of our boys have passed the military examination and soon will be leaving for a cantonment or other places of employment. We wish them all the good things that go with military life and a safe return home after the war is over.

The next social meeting comes next Friday evening, March 29. Several extra features will be on the program to make the evening a delightful one.

Another class of candidates will be given the work at the next lodge session, April 4. Have your friend ready for this class.

FIRE SWEEPS THE HICKEY BUILDING IN UNION STREET

Fire broke out Saturday night at 10 o'clock in the rear of the King Pharmacy, 5 Union street, and before the departments arrived it had spread over the rear of the whole building. The cause is not known, but it is thought that the waste paper and rubbish which had been thrown in the back of the building caught fire. Bert Hoskinson, who lives above the King Pharmacy, was compelled to move out of his apartments, although he was able to save the greater part of his household goods. The flames swept the rear of the building, completely destroying the outer walls.

The damage done by the water was greater than that done by the flames. S. H. King, manager of the King Pharmacy, stated that he could not estimate his loss, but he was positive that the greater amount of his stock had been damaged by the water.

"Sandy" Murray, who conducted a billiard room in the room next to the King Pharmacy, was able to save much of his stock out before the water came into his room but the billiard tables are badly damaged. He stated that the loss was completely covered by insurance.

The building is owned by Mrs. D. Hickey. The loss to the building will not exceed $1,000.

FATHER WITH SON AT CAMP SHERMAN DOING GREAT WORK

Camp Sheridan, Ala., March 25.—A Jew on the staff of the Y. M. C. A. Sounds queer, doesn't it? But it's been perfectly true all winter in the case of Morris Isaacs of Cincinnati, who has been serving as a boxing instructor and general athletic director for the Army Y. M. C. A. at Camp Sheridan. It demonstrates how democratic an army camp social service and religious agency such as the Red Triangle can be.

Morris Isaacs is well known in Cincinnati and Ohio. He is fifty-seven years old and as deaf as a post, but he can "square his dukes" with any fellow in the camp. He has been a lover of the boxing game for many years and it was due to his knowledge of boxing as a builder of physical man that gave Morris Isaac the wonderful pride he must feel today when he looks at his son, Captain Stanley Isaacs of the Ohio National Guard Army. For Isaacs, Jr., was a puny, sickly youngster and his father spent years in building him into one of the finest physical specimens in the whole encampment.

And then when the boy became an officer his father couldn't stand to be away from him—and he asked to be taken on the Y. M. C. A. staff at Camp Sheridan. As a Y. M. C. A. secretary he has been one of the leading figures in the recreative life of the camp. He arranges the boxing shows, figures out entertainments, and raises money whenever the special Army Y. M. C. A. fund at Camp Sheridan gets slim. Something like $3500 was needed to finish equipping the new Red Triangle Coliseum, the largest building in any training camp in the country. Mr. Isaacs entertained for Cincinnati, and in less than one day had raised $4,000.

Captain Stanley Isaacs, of Company K of the old First Ohio, was recently notified of impending transfer to Camp Wadsworth, and when Morris Isaacs was informed of the change he asked for a transfer to the Camp Wadsworth Y. M. C. A. Camp General Secretary Bookwalter would rather lose his right arm than Morris Isaacs so he persuaded the military to keep Captain Isaacs until time to go "over there." When that time comes the father wants to go with his son. He is serving the Y. M. C. A. without compensation, his two reasons being "love for my boy and love for the Army Y. M. C. A. which serves our boys wherever they go."

EAT LESS WHEAT IS HOOVER'S ORDER TO AMERICANS

Washington, March 25.—Herbert C. Hoover, Food Administrator, announced Saturday night that the country must go to bread rations.

Householders and restaurants must use not to exceed 1-2 pounds of wheat products a person a week. The monthly consumption of 42,000,000 bushels of wheat must be cut to 21,000,000 in order to supply the allies.

That gives a ration of not more than 1-2 pounds of wheat products weekly for each person. Flour sales will be cut to one eighth of a barrel for a town customer and to one quarter of a barrel for any country customer, that retailers' stocks may be distributed to as great a number as possible. The wheat contents of bakers' bread will be reduced to 25 per cent on April 14, which increases by 5 per cent the amount of substitutes that must be used.

Sacrifice in the wheat ration will entail no hardship, in the opinion of Food Administration officials, because the supply of potatoes, corn, oats and milk is ample to maintain health.

The full seriousness of the wheat situation, and some of the difficulties with which the Food Administration has had to contend in warding off famine from the allies, became known with the announcement of the new plans.

C. L. SHRIGLEY SAW ARCH LEEDY DAY BEFORE HE PERISHED

C. L. Shrigley, in the following letter written February 27, on board the U. S. S. Davis, tells of meeting Archie Leedy the day before the Jacob Jones went down carrying Newark's first war hero to his death. This is Arch Leedy week in Licking county. The public is asked to buy War Savings stamps in large numbers this week in memory of the first Licking county boy to give up his life in this great war. Mr. Shrigley's letter follows:

"Editor of The Advocate—Received your kind letter and medal and I thank you and also the people of Newark very much. I was looking over the list of names of contributors which you sent me and it makes a person feel very good to see names of people whom one knows so well. I heard that a lot of my friends have enlisted in the navy and I have found that it is a very good place for any young man in time of peace or in time of war."

"I was in the naval Y. M. C. A. one night eating my supper and a young man came up to where I was sitting and I thought that I had seen him before, but I couldn't place him, and he asked me if I had ever been around Ohio, and I told him what part, and he told me he played baseball on a Newark team—and then I remembered him—it was Stanley Simpson—and I was very much pleased, for I never expected to see anyone from my home-town. Well, I did meet Arch Leedy, though, but I didn't know him. I was with him the night before he met his death."

"I will close, hoping to hear from you in the near future. I remain yours truly, C. L. Shrigley, U. S. S. Davis, care Postmaster, New York City."

OHIO WOMEN NEED ASSISTANCE FOR WORTHY PROJECT

The scope and magnitude of the work which Ohio women may be asked to do is as yet problematical but one piece of work has been clearly defined and undertaken and that is the building and equipping of suitable lodgings at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., for the accommodation of the families of the men who will come here to time be stationed there for it is said that Camp Sherman will be maintained not only during the period of the war but for many years.

This is a project which has received the unqualified approval of General Glenn and of the War Department at Washington.

The following telegraphic communication has been received:
Mrs. Ernest T. Johnson, Chairman of National Defense for Licking County, Youngstown's $20,000 dollars and Cleveland's $30,000 all in, which pays all obligations of the Community House and leaves $10,000 balance for new constructions and furnishings.

Unless we get balance of total $25,000 to start new lodge, we must continue our construction organization when just in sight of receipt of substantial remittances from all over the state.

Capt. Alex. Laughlin, Jr.

Doubtless many have decided to become supporters of this project but have not made their donation.

This message makes promptness urgent. It is desired that every woman in the state pay at least the minimum membership fee of one dollar.

When Cross, Feverish and Sick Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs," because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Advertisement.

Introducing the new system of alarm which is distinguished from the alarm in the case of air-raids. The police came in for a great amount of chaffing, the people being amused at their lack of proficiency with the drumsticks. This appeared to mark the limit of interest in the bombardment. Work was resumed under normal conditions. All the transportation systems were running. The streets were full of people whose sole subject of conversation was the new battle of the Somme, which is generally compared with Verdun.

An American corporal of marines was struck in the chest by a splinter of one of the first shells which fell during Saturday's bombardment of the Oise on this part of the front near the southwest past Chauny and passes to the south of Noyon.

Persistent attacks with strong forces of infantry and lavish use of artillery have not enabled the Germans to break through the British defense and, after four days, the great offensive blow in northern France has not yet brought a decision to the attackers. Heavy fighting is in progress around Bapaume, near Peronne and where the French and British fronts join.

Field Marshal Haig's withdrawal previously planned in case of a heavy attack, has been executed in a manner described as masterly and great credit for its success is given to the small units which, some times outnumbered eight or nine to one, clung to their posts and impeded the German advance.

The British have made few counter-attacks, but every one attempted has been successful. British efforts are centered on withdrawing as occasion requires and permitting the enemy to wear himself out before the British defenses.

Sunday the fighting forces in the north reached the old battlefield of the Somme from which the Germans retreated a year ago. Again Bapaume and Peronne are the centers of the most bitter fighting. Bapaume is the key position between Arras and Albert and Berlin reports that a "gigantic struggle" is being made for its possession.

The capture of Peronne is claimed by the Germans but heavy fighting is taking place north of it and southward along the Somme river. Between Bapaume and Peronne the Germans have reached the Transloy-Comblies-Maurepas line where they are held up by the British.

On the southern end of the great battle line where the sanguinary struggle has not halted for many hours, the Germans have reached Chauny, an important point on the Oise river southwest of La Ferre. Here however their advance has not been so great as directly west of Chauny, where they have progressed more than ten miles. The British and French lines along the Chemin des Dames and eastward toward Rheims would be menaced if the Germans advanced as far as Compeigne on the road to Paris. But Compeigne is a good twenty miles southwest of Chauny.

The intensity of the struggle is shown by the official announcement that British aviators on Saturday brought down four enemy machines. The British lost only nine. In addition to carrying out their work in the fighting zone, British airmen again have dropped bombs successfully on Mannheim, Germany. Berlin claims that Franco-American detachments aided the British in the fighting Saturday, but the identity of the American units have not been learned. It is possible that American and French troops from the Chemin des Dames sector have moved up to the Oise or north of it, but more probable that American engineers with the British army were concerned. Berlin also has announced the capture of Ham, between Peronne and Chauny and claims that the number of prisoners has increased to 30,000.

There has been little except artillery activity on the remainder of the British front and on the French and American sectors.

The German artillery fire has been violent along the Chemin des Dames in the Champagne, northeast of Verdun and in Alsace.

The Dutch cabinet is reported to have decided to refuse the proffer of many thousands of tons of foodstuffs made by the allied powers in return for the use of Dutch shipping. The food was to be placed at Holland's disposal and was to be carried on Dutch ships.

BROTHERS ENLIST IN THE NAVY AND ARE SENT EAST

Two brothers, Louis Jeffers and Andrew R. Jeffers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jeffers of O'Bannon avenue, have enlisted in the navy and were immediately sent east.

The young men have been associated with their father in truck gardening and attended the local market. They went to Columbus, where they enlisted.

GOOD OMEN OF THE FUTURE.
London, March 25.—The Manchester Guardian says a significant feature of the situation on the battlefield is that after three days of fighting the enemy claims only five thousand prisoners more than after the second day which means that the British withdrawal after the rupture of the front west of St. Quentin was made in excellent order. The newspaper regards this as a good omen of the future.

AMERICAN AMBASSADOR TO FRANCE CONFIRMS THE BOMBARDMENT OF PARIS.

Washington, March 25.—Sharp, in Paris, reported to the state department today the bombardment of Paris at long range by the Germans.

He forwarded the official statement of the French government in which the fact was announced to the public.

URGE FARMERS TO SOW MORE SPRING WHEAT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 25.—Four minute men to the number of 25,000 today began a nation-wide campaign urging that farmers sow more spring wheat than ever before and that every farmer's family raise its own vegetables this year.

The four minute men have received a communication from A. M. Andre Tardieu, French high commissioner, appealing to Americans to send more wheat to France in 1918.

JOHN WARD HAS GRADUATED FROM AVIATION SCHOOL

John Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ward, 199 Hudson avenue, is the guest of his parents for a few days. Formerly a student at Denison and Ohio State universities he has been in the aviation department undergoing the elementary training at the University of Illinois. Only the ground-work and technicalities of the machine are taught there and he completed the course last week and was graduated. With him are Bob Fleck, who was graduated from Denison in 1910, and A. L. Johnson, son of Prof. Johnson of Denison University.

When Mr. Ward returns Wednesday he will be sent with his squad to a flying field, where he will be taught to fly. It is not known definitely whether they will be assigned to Texas or Mineola.

NO CONFIRMATION OF AMERICANS TAKING PART IN FIGHTING

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 25.—German statements that American troops had taken part in the fighting on the British front in France had not been confirmed today and officials, including Major General March, chief of staff, declined to comment on the reports. Although a detachment of American engineers was caught in the German counterattacks in the Cambrai salient several months ago officers indicated that there was nothing here to show that any American troops other than engineers or special units had been attacked to the British forces.

News from the front continued to be the absorbing topic today and official Washington, including President Wilson, anxiously scanned British and German statements. Whether the war department has received confidential advices from General Pershing was not disclosed, but officers pointed out that information on British operations must necessarily be given out at London and whatever General Pershing may have sent through probably would be regarded as confidential.

Berlin's announcement that Paris was being bombarded by long range guns was taken here as confirmation of French reports that rifle shells fell in Paris Saturday and yesterday.

The range of the new weapon—76 miles—exceeds even the dreams of ordnance experts here, but considerable satisfaction was taken in the Paris accounts of the bombardment inferring that little damage resulted.

MILITARY REVIEW OF GERMAN ASSAULT ON WESTERN FRONT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 25.—Failure of the militarists to hold the German people by political strategy has caused the rulers to resort to a desperate battle-test to maintain their supremacy, says the war department's weekly military review today in commenting on the German assault on the western front.

The moving character of the fighting at its present stage, continues the statement, makes it premature to express an opinion on the tactical phases for, while the Germans have made headway, no definite enveloping movement has been outlined.

PRINCE HENRY IS KILLED IN ACTION

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 25.—Prince Henry of Reuss, head of the younger branch of the Reuss family, has been killed in the fighting on the western front according to a Central News dispatch quoting advices received from Berlin.

Prince Henry XXVI was the head of the younger branch of the house of Reuss. He was born in 1858 and succeeded his father, Prince Henry XIV, as head of the principality upon the latter's death in 1913. He was a general in the Prussian cavalry. Being resigning in his own right as head of the young branch of the Reuss family, he had acted as regent since October 1908 of the principality of the elder branch of the house.

CAIRO WARNED AIRSHIP IS SEEN OVER THE COAST

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 25.—The inhabitants of Cairo, Egypt, were informed officially last Thursday, according to a Reuter dispatch, that a hostile airship had been observed over the coast. The public was warned of the possibility of air raids and ordered to observe the necessary lighting regulations.

An official statement issued in Athens on Sunday says that on Thursday airplanes passed over the island of Crete, travelling in a northern direction.

LONG RANGE GUNS RESUME PARIS ATTACK

Paris by the Germans. He was wounded seriously, but his life probably was saved by the deflection of the splinter by a cigarette case. So far as has been reported he is the only American victim of the bombardment.

The Matin says one of the shells fired in the direction of Paris yesterday struck a church in the suburbs. Several persons who were attending a palm Sunday service were killed.

It is to be hoped that the gun which is shelling Paris will very shortly be silenced, says the Figaro which gives the following quotation from a man who is said to be in a position to know:

"The 380 millimetre gun which bombarded Dunkirk two years ago from a distance of 25 miles was located by our airplanes and soon put out of action. The same methods will be adopted with regard to the 240 millimetre gun which has been bombarding Paris for the last two days.

"Since Saturday our airplanes have been looking for it and the fact that it stopped firing is due, perhaps, to their arrival.

"It will not be long before the gun is definitely placed, then its career will be soon over."

The military authorities, according to another morning newspaper are convinced that the Germans are using two new guns, while Richard Arapu, the military expert of L'Oeuvre believes there is a whole battery of them.

FRENCH HAVE GONE TO ASSISTANCE OF BRITISH SOLDIERS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, March 25.—The French on Saturday went to the assistance of the British and took over a sector of the battlefield, the war office announces.

In the region of Noyon and on the right bank of the Oise heavy fighting with the Germans is in progress. The statement follows:

"French troops began to intervene on March 23 in the battle now being fought on the British front. They relieved certain of the allied forces and took up fighting themselves on this sector of the front.

"At the present time they are engaged in heavy fighting in the region of Noyon, and they are disputing the heights of the right bank of the Oise with important German forces.

"Northwest of Rheims there has been a violent artillery action in the region of Courcy and Loivre. In the Champagne two German surprise attacks east of Suippes resulted in failure. French patrols took some prisoners near Tahure.

"There was much artillery activity between Arracourt and the Vosges. At daybreak, German forces attacked the French lines, east of Bleney and east of Badonvillers. The Germans were repulsed with heavy losses."

BREAK ON THE STOCK MARKET

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, March 25.—Stocks broke from one to three points at the opening of the market here today on further heavy selling impelled by the war news. The weakest issues again included equipments or war shares, and special industrials.

U. S. Steel, the market leader, opened with a sale of 9600 shares at from $8 1/2 to $8 3/4, representing a maximum decline of two points. Union Pacific also broke two points. Among the other stocks which exhibited weakness were Texas company, Crucible Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Central Leather, Great Northern railroad, St. Paul and C. and O.

LAST AMMUNITION FIRED BY BRITISH BEFORE RETIRING

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 25.—The British in their retreat defended every hill, ridge and fortification with the greatest stubbornness, messages from German war correspondents on the western front say, according to a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam. The British artillery, it is added, splendidly sacrificed itself in covering the retreat, the batteries only breaking up when the German storming troops arrived within a few hundred yards of the positions. The British gunners then fired their last ammunition and retired.

How Germany Devours The Little Nations

While his Turkish partner turns again to the wholesale murder of Armenians, the Kaiser, contemplating with satisfaction the heavy bag of little nations that is the reward of his sportsmanlike prowess, permits himself to "live again one of those great moments in which we can reverently admire God's hand in history." Moreover, "with gratitude toward God" in his heart, he faces the future "firmly trusting in the sword." The phrase, "no annexations and no indemnities" was still on its lips when Germany closed its mailed fist over Russia's Baltic provinces, Finland, Poland, the Ukraine, and Roumania, and now the same clutching menace seems to be moving toward Sweden, Norway, and Denmark. Will Germany be able to digest what she is devouring?

"The Digest"—For People Who Are Not Afraid of the Truth

Never before perhaps in the history of the world has it been more difficult to arrive at the actual truth regarding the tremendous events that are occurring from week to week. Empires are falling, huge tracts of territory are changing hands, and the political complexion of States is being completely altered over night. To know the real facts regarding these epoch-making occurrences is a vital necessity for every one of us, yet there are innumerable influences, both domestic and foreign, that tend to keep the issues clouded and the exact developments in doubt. To obtain the truth you must find a newsmagazine that gives you the facts impartially, from whatever source they may be derived, that has no policy but to state conditions as they are, without gloss or concealment, and that leaves your judgment absolutely unfettered. Such a magazine is THE LITERARY DIGEST. You need it.

GERMANS MOWED DOWN IN ATTACK AGAINST BRITISH

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, March 23.—Powerful enemy attacks delivered with great weight of infantry and artillery have broken through the British defensive system, west of St. Quentin, the war office announces.

The British, west of St. Quentin, are falling back to positions further west. Very heavy fighting with fresh enemy troops is in progress.

The British troops on the northern portion of the battlefield are holding their positions.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, March 23.—The artillery preparation of the Germans, in the drive against the British lines which is now in progress is described, by those who took part in it as the most violent they ever endured, according to the Daily Mail's correspondent on the British front. The thing that stands out as characteristic of the fighting up to the present, says the correspondent, "is that we did so well under the terrific impact."

Continuing, the correspondent says: "Upon one corps' front there was a gun every fifteen yards. The strength of the mortars, which the enemy brought up in such great numbers, sent over such an overwhelming weight of iron and high explosives that in most parts of the front wire ceased to be an obstacle and trenches were obliterated. At the same time all of our known battery positions were drenched with gas but their gas shells failed to reach all of our batteries, nor did they succeed anywhere in breaking down our wire. At one point where the Germans found our wire unbroken they set to work with scissors until they had made a way through, an incident reminiscent of the methods of fighting inculcated by Frederick the Great. All of this was done under our machine gun fire."

"A curious fact reported by our airmen was that the Germans composing the special assault divisions wore new uniforms."

"Got on their best clothes for a visit to Paris!" commented one of our generals.

"Our relieving corps did valuable work despite adverse weather conditions. One of our men in the early morning reconnaissance spotted several thousand Germans moving westward south of Bullecourt and another reported three thousand of the enemy in a sunken road in this area waiting to advance. Few enemy machines were seen and they mostly flew low, peppering our trenches with their machine guns."

"This is the first battle where British gunners had to serve their guns in gas masks and it was a difficult task. Fortunately practices with gas masks have been taking place frequently for an hour daily. I found every one I saw pretty confident. At first they did have a hard job to meet the masses of Germans who came on in dense formations than ever before, yet all reports show that they fought magnificently. For example south of St. Quentin, one of our divisions had to bear up against the repeated assaults of no fewer than six German divisions. At possibly 90,000 men on a daily when the assaults ceased with the darkness did our troops withdraw to strong positions behind the canal system between St. Quentin and Oise."

"It is estimated that altogether nearly 600,000 Germans participated in the offensive. The enemy fought well and their gunners did good service. The quickness with which the guns were brought forward into No Man's Land after the infantry had advanced was marked. He had in many places the advantage over us in positions and he was at all points largely superior in numbers."

For the first time in the war on the western front since the opposing armies established themselves in their trench systems the defensive zone has been broken through. In other great attacks the British, French and Germans have been able to bend back the line but not to strike through the zone of defense. Many military critics had reached the opinion that an account of the strength of the lines it would be impossible to break them until one side or the other had been worn down to such a point that it would be no longer able to retain it strongly.

may be necessary with open field warfare.

The point at which the British line has been broken is near the southern end of the German attacking front, which extends from Arras to La Fere fifteen miles below St. Quentin. Below this sector is the great attack in the front, where the line, approaching nearest to Paris, turns sharply to the east.

The German offensive has developed with almost unparalleled rapidity. One reason for this is indicated in Field Marshal Haig's reports showing that the Germans are constantly bringing up fresh bodies of troops.

The statement of the British war office that the troops west of St. Quentin are falling back to prepare positions, indicates that the Germans, although they have broken through the British defensive system, have not pierced the entire British zone of defense. This illusion in the British statement to the defensive system may be only to the main battle front system behind which other lines have been prepared. If that is the case the Germans have done little more than repeat what the British did in the battle of the Somme when they pierced the Hindenburg line and captured long stretches of it, forcing the Germans to retreat to prepared positions to the rear.

The experiences of the attacking forces in other campaigns show that the Germans, as they progress, are likely to find their movements more difficult and the resistance of the British more effective. The more deeply they strike into the British lines the further they must move from their bases, entailing increasing difficulties in providing supplies for their troops. They must move forward over a devastated area, while the British will have the great advantage of good roads and railroads. Perhaps the greatest trouble of the Germans will be to bring up their heavy artillery. In every previous campaign of this nature it has been necessary for the advancing forces to halt frequently while bringing up the heavy pieces.

The extent of the British defeat has been a subject of much speculation, but it is known they have been easily moved during the last winter. Earlier in the war when the offensive rested with the French and British less attention was paid to positions of the rear. The British in particular were said to scorn elaborate defensive zones, such as the Germans constructed. After the defection of Russia and consequent increase of German strength in the west, however, it became necessary for the allies to consider defensive measures which were carried out during the winter.

FIRE GUTS THE SECOND FLOOR OF BLACKSMITH SHOP

Fire, discovered at 3:30, Saturday morning, in the second floor of the blacksmith shop of Jones & Lowendick, Elmwood Court, ate out the second story.

The building is owned by James E. Jones, and Wilfred Jones and Theodore Lowendick have their blacksmith shop there. A pile of rubbish was found burning on the north side of the building at 1 o'clock and was extinguished. At 3:30 o'clock the second floor was found ablaze, and it is thought that particles of the burning rubbish ignited the building. The second floor—formerly a paint shop—was used as a storage for old buggies and other articles.

The loss is estimated at about $600, with no insurance.

MACHINES MUST NOT BE PARKED NEAR FIREPLUG

A number of automobile drivers were ordered to report to the police department on Friday. The drivers had offended by violating one of the most urgent of the ordinances, that of parking their machines in front of or within a certain distance of a fire plug.

In cities the extreme penalty is imposed upon anyone found guilty of violating the way to a fire plug and the many violators here in the past will be reprimanded for the first offense but if it is repeated a fine will be imposed. Six machine owners were called into the police station today.

INVESTIGATION OF ALLOTMENTS TAKING PLACE

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., March 23.—Brigadier General Frederick Perkins, commanding officer of Camp Sherman, in the absence of Major General E. R. Glenn, has been removed from duty and assigned to Governor's Island for duty with the eastern department of the army, it became known today. The order was issued last night. Brigadier General W. A. Holbrook, commanding 16th infantry brigade and the officers' school of the line, today assumed command of the division.

General Perkins left today for his new post. Colonel Williams, commanding the 321st infantry, assumed command of the 16th brigade. No reason has been assigned for the changes.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., March 23.—For the purpose of investigating and clearing up 500 delinquent allotment claims, Captain Emmet C. Feibels, of the division war risk bureau, has been ordered to Washington. Many of the cases are of long-standing.

Dependents of selectees have been complaining that they have never received the allotments due them. Investigation here shows the claims to be good.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., March 23.—Truancy, the opposite of camouflage is the latest form of German propaganda to be practiced on Camp Sherman selectees, military authorities here declare. Enemy influence is blamed for spreading the persistent report that the ground glass has been found repeatedly in food served to the men of the Eighty-third Division. Through investigation of scores of cases which have been reported in the past few weeks have been proven utterly groundless, officers assert.

A sort of hysteria as a result of the persistent rumors is reported among the men. Authorities today insisted that there is absolutely no cause for apprehension among the men on such a score. They say that the men have been denying themselves food through fear of eating the powdered glass which so far has not been found in a single case.

Investigation by proper authorities has revealed the fact that occasional particles of porcelain or granite were become loosened in the dishes used by the men, while sand has been found a number of times in beans, rice and potatoes which have not been thoroughly cleaned. Officers and division headquarters today were emphatic in stating that many of the selectees were letting a "foolish burlesque" get the better of their common sense, and that such fear was "unmanly."

They stated that even if powdered glass were placed in the food, it would require a comparatively large amount to cause irritation of the stomach. They scoffed at the fact that the enemy might resort to such methods, which at the most would only affect a few men, but they deplored the fact that originally the scare is probably due to German agents.

Hard, sharp particles found in certain grades of candy purchased at the post exchange here have given rise to another source of the ground glass report. Investigation showed that the candy in question, of a cheap grade, had been manufactured so hurriedly that the sugar crystallized in rough crystals. One make of candy has been reported all over the country as having some glass in it but the sale of this candy has been ordered discontinued by federal authorities, it was stated.

Company E, 329th infantry, is now the champion unit in that organization beyond all shadow of a doubt. An official compilation of individual records of the men shows that selectees in Company E, won the big loving cup offered for squad competition by Lieutenant Colonel A. J. Mahab, division firing instructor, while the company cup was awarded to the same company. The latter cup was donated by Colonel Barnhart, commanding the regiment.

In the squad cup competition the companies were ranked as follows: Company E, 115 points; headquarters company, 1,077; Company I, 1,075 and Company C, 968. In the company competition the units were ranked as follows: Company E, 80 men, with a possible 12,000 points, made 9,974 with 23 selectees; Company M, with 93 men and a possible total of 13,550 made 11,265, with a grade of 80.3; Company C, with 95 men and a possible total of 14,250, made 11,342 for a grade of 79.5.

Eight alleged deserters were brought here in the past two or three days and induced into the service of the national army. The men are as follows: Riley Jeffrey, Columbus; Tomasso Sacchetti, of Chicago; and Andrew Longren, of Allegheny county, Pa.; Clyde A. Wise, of Champaign county; William King of Toledo; Everett P. Reed, of Wheeling; Perry Turner of Belmont county and Constantine Vlassis of Cleveland.

Two companies were reported released from quarantine for scarlet fever today as follows: Company B, 22nd Machine Gun battalion and Field Hospital No. 229. Three companies and Batteries were quarantined as follows: Company C, 248th Field Signal Battalion and Battery A, 323rd Light Field artillery for scarlet fever, and Company K, 329th infantry for diphtheria.

SCENE OF ACTIVITY BEHIND BATTLE FRONT Baffles DESCRIPTION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, March 23.—The Germans forced their way into Morry, but a crushing counter-attack drove them out. Reuter's correspondent at British headquarters telegraphed. A large party was surrounded and probably was captured.

There is reason to believe 50 German divisions are flowing into the struggle, the correspondent states, and probably half as many more are in close reserve. Under the tremendous onslaught the British troops are falling back slowly and in order. At many places they are withdrawing voluntarily so as to maintain an unbroken front.

The scene of activity behind the battlefront baffles description, but everywhere there is the same well-ordered organization and quiet confidence.

Morry is on the northern battlefield, 15 miles below Arras. It is about four miles back of the line held by the British before the Germans began their offensive.

The Germans this morning were pressing hard the British forces defending Hermies (about 2 1/2 miles back of the old line, in the region southwest of Cambrai).

More intensive fighting is expected.

The operation is so vast and is changing with such kaleidoscopic rapidity as the line surges backward and forward that it is impossible to visualize the scene sufficiently to give a connected and accurate account of it at present.

The weather is wonderfully fine, although the visibility is handicapped by local mists.

HAVE GERMANS A NEW INVENTION TO THROW PROJECTILE 60 MILES?

(Continued from Page 1) statement issued here today says several airplanes attacked Paris last night dropping a number of bombs. There were some casualties.

The following official announcement was given out:

"At 8:20 o'clock this morning a few airplanes flying at a very high altitude, succeeded in crossing the lines and attacking Paris. They were immediately noticed by aviators of the entrenched camps of Paris, as well as by those at the front."

"The dropping of bombs at several points has been reported. There are several victims. A later announcement will give further details of the raid."

President Poincare, Premier Clemenceau, the prefect of police and other officials visited the places at which bombs were dropped while the raid was still in progress. Going to a school in whose cellar 500 pupils were installed, they were greeted with the Marseillaise. The president and premier responded with a cheer for France.

EMPEROR IN COMMAND ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, March 23.—Today's German official announcement received here states that Emperor William is in command on the western front.

This announcement is regarded as further evidence that the emperor has taken his all on an offensive, hoping to win and go down in history as the victor in this great and decisive world conflict.

Dispatches from Amsterdam pictures the emperor at Spa, Belgium, which is being kept isolated on a radius of 15 kilometers. The German crown prince, Field Marshal von Hindenburg, General von Ludendorff and other prominent Germans, also are reported there with him.

(INWIRELESS SERVICE CHILICOTHE) Berlin (via London) March 23.—Between the Omignon stream and the Somme, after the capture of the first enemy position the Germans made their way through Holnon wood and fought across the heights of Savy and Rouppe, penetrating into the third hostile position.

South of the Somme the Germans broke through the hostile lines, adds the report, and in an uninterrupted forward movement drove the enemy over the Crozat canal towards the west.

The announcement says the Germans are standing before the third enemy position. It reports that the British evacuated their positions in the bend south of Cambrai and were pursued by the Germans through Demicourt, Fiesquiere and Ribecourt.

ARMY OFFICIALS AT WASHINGTON ON OFFENSIVE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, March 23.—Army officials today awaited eagerly fuller details of the break into the British defensive system west of St. Quentin, reported by London. Until the extent of the movement of the British lines is revealed there is no means of gauging the strategic possibilities of the German successes.

Observers found comfort in the fact that announcement of withdrawal came from British, not German sources and also in the orderly movement of the British to new positions. Those facts, they feel, precludes the possibility that a large sector has been overwhelmed and a grave threat created at the security of the whole line in that region.

It was thought likely the British withdrawal might leave the German forces in an embarrassing position, possibly holding a salient projecting into the British lines and assailable by counterattack from the three sides. Unless the breach is a wide one and the Germans are able to pour in immediately, vast reserve forces to keep going ahead, it was said, there always is the chance that the head of the salient can be cut off by counter assaults on both flanks and the more advanced German units captured. This is precisely what happened to the British themselves at Cambrai.

German estimates that they had taken 16,000 men and 200 guns in their first assault were accepted as substantially correct, as no details came from British sources. The fact that figures were available for announcement by the Germans so soon after the event, it is thought, indicates that the captures were made in large groups. Had the 16,000 men taken been picked up here and there along the whole front of the present operations covering fifty miles, it would have taken days to form the estimate as to their number.

This led to the belief that one or more important advanced post of the British battle front were cut off in the rush and the surrender was made necessary because supply and ammunition lines had been severed.

Many officers thought today that one effect of the breach in the British lines would be to transfer operations to the flanks of the sector penetrated. Without doubt, they said, the Germans would attempt immediately to widen their positions, turning right and left from the original direction of their advance.

ASTOUNDING STATEMENT BY SPRINGFIELD, OHIO WOMAN

Troubled With Dropsy, Indigestion, Nervousness and Improper Assimilation, Her Case Baffled Medical Skill. Read How, Drop By Drop, Hull's Superalative Restored Her to Health

I am so thankful for that accidental meeting we had on North Capitol Ave., Indianapolis, about eight years ago, when my health was so wretched and my condition so alarming, for I had taken drugs, not medicine, until I fairly despaired of everyone who claimed the title of Doctor, and when I was no longer able to keep up I felt that "Hull's Superalative" was the only thing that might reach my trouble for I remembered so well how you stood on the opposite side of the room looking with a weak heart, a very serious case of female trouble, a damaged stomach, a lazy liver and a complete prostration of the inner nerves, from which I had suffered since the birth of my eldest daughter in 1902.

Dr. Hull had told me how the water would pass out of my system, and it truly began in about four weeks, quarts and quarts of water passed from my system, and in less than one week my weight was reduced from 180 pounds to 135 pounds.

My neighbors stood aghast. "What are you taking, Mrs. Dutton?" "Hull's Superalative." Christmas time came. I was still taking of my first bottle of medicine, and Oh, the joy of that first bottle of medicine. I kept on taking Hull's Superalative until I had taken the second bottle—more than six months for two dollars. Besides I had always suffered from my earliest womanhood days with a dull misery in the small of my back. This, too, was gone.

"Do you wonder I sing the praise of Hull's Superalative?" I say most truthfully it was a Godsend to me.

I have never been without it and as long as I live I will always be a devotee of Hull's Superalative in my medicine cabinet and I shall always sing its praise and my prayer shall always be that Dr. Hull may be spared many years and that God's richest blessings may be lavished upon him, and his greatest of all medicines, Hull's Superalative.

Will gladly answer any question you may want to ask providing a self-addressed, stamped envelope is enclosed.

Most sincerely,
MRS. A. H. DUTTON,
222 Stanton Ave., Springfield, Ohio.

Americans, Let's All Be Unselfish Patriots

WE DON'T WANT TO HEAR THE CRY

"OH! FATHER, MOTHER DEAR--I am so Hungry, Just One Little Piece of Bread Before I Go To Bed!"

Dear fathers and mothers throughout this entire country of ours, how would you like to have such sorrowful words as these coming to you from your little child, the last words he utters before he goes to bed? Awful! you must say.

Your country through the United States Food Administration is pleading with you day after day to save food that the "Hungry-Hun-of-a-Gun" may never force such burning words upon your ears as he has upon the thousands and thousands of mothers Over There—over there where the fathers are taken away.

You and every one of us who must stay at home can help win this great world-wide war for Freedom by doing everything our Government says for us to do—the duty of every American.

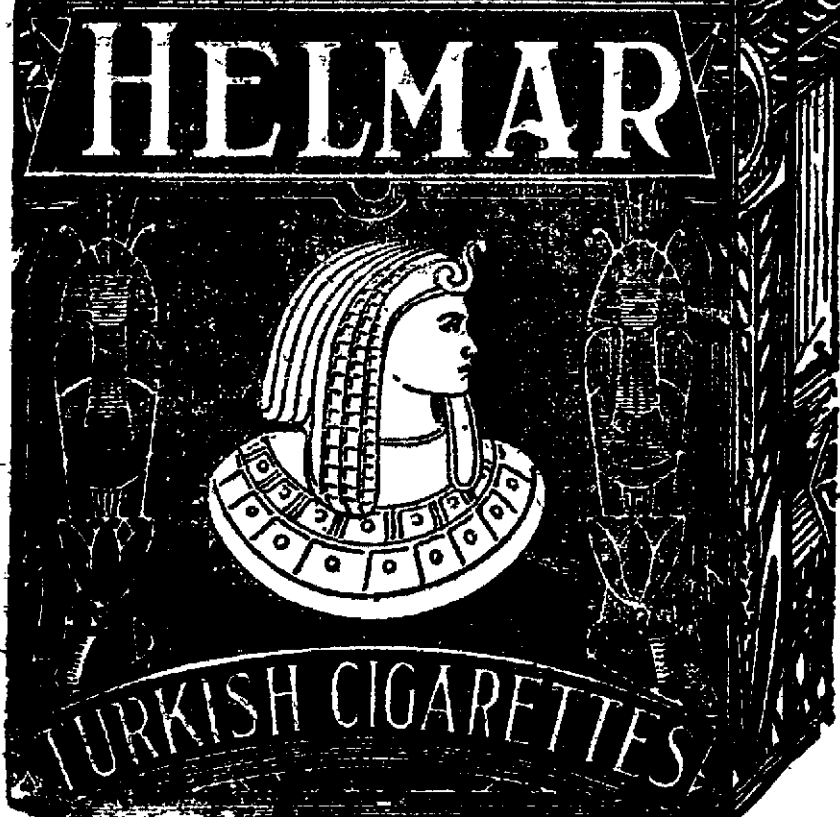

THE UNITED STATES FOOD ADMINISTRATION SAYS:--

1. The more home grown garden stuff you eat this year the more food you will put on the dinner table of a starving family in Europe.
2. It is up to every foot of American soil to produce as much food as it can. Put your back yard on the honor roll.
3. The man with the hoe and plow must get behind the man with the gun to beat Germany.
4. Uncle Sam wants you to plant a garden.
5. Eat the food you raise yourself and release other food that is needed in Europe. The Food Administration will see that the food you release is sent where it is most needed.
6. There's a lot of solid satisfaction in eating the fruit of your own soil, and besides, it worries the kaiser.
7. Plan to plant this summer and to can for next winter.
8. Food is the most precious thing in the world. How much can you raise this year?
9. Plant all you can, and conserve all you plant. Eat it or can it!
10. Plenty in the cupboard next winter will depend on what you plant this spring.
11. A fine garden is the best war service a civilian can give.
12. War food prices can never be low. Plant a garden for economy.
13. The United States is just U. S. We are pledged to carry on the fight, shoulder to shoulder with the Allies, with MEN and GUNS and FOOD.

Help save the foods for our boys and our associates in arms, they need Meat, Wheat, Fats and Sugar. Your country does not wish you to starve yourself but asks that you eat plenty wisely, but without waste, such other foods as cannot be sent Over There.

Your opportunity of being a fighter for freedom is in the saving of foods and the assisting of others in the saving of foods. Each day ask yourself this question: "What am I doing to feed the world?" And pass the question along to your neighbor.

This plea is conveyed to you by the United States Food Administration through the following retail merchants of Newark, Ohio, realizing the awful seriousness of the food situation and in the hope that each will do his part in the conservation of foods: J. SPLENDID WORK OF GRANVILLE WOMEN IN WAR ACTIVITIES

Granville, O., March 25.—This village and surrounding districts are preparing to carry out every request that comes from government headquarters at any time in the quest and most efficacious manner possible by means of the township committee of the women's auxiliary of the council of national defense, which has been so organized as to reach every home in the township. At present the membership is confined to a representative body of about 40 women from the school districts and the various organizations in the village, but very soon it is hoped that a meeting place may be secured which will accommodate every woman in the township who desires to join. On Saturday afternoon the third meeting of this central committee was held in the A. F. F. W. and Red Cross rooms, at which the chairman of committees were announced, and an outline given of the activities required from each. Those elected by the executive committee, Miss Mamie Lloyd, secretary; Miss Eva Robinson, Miss Minnie Jones, Mrs. George H. Reese and Mrs. Burton Case, chairman. First, food-production and conservation. Dr. T. A. Lewis, in charge of the community gardening, outlined in brief a few plans which he hopes to perfect with the help of his captains and lieutenants. Not the least important being the securing of every piece of ground in the township for someone to work. Anyone owning such a lot will communicate with Dr. Lewis. Mrs. Swartz, of the food conservation, was absent; Mrs. C. D. Coons, child welfare, is out of town; Mrs. Fred McCollum, in charge of the educational propaganda and of the women's committee of the Liberty loan, is ready to carry out instructions from headquarters and with a competent committee to co-operate in the big drive. Every woman in the township with sufficient money in sight to buy a bond is urged to help the township again to "go over the top."

Nursing, in charge of Mrs. E. P. Cook, bids fair to be a busy committee, as there is a call to recruit for the nurses' summer school at Vassar College by June 1. This institution having offered to turn over its entire equipment for nearly three months of intensive training at the merely nominal price of $95 per pupil. The Red Cross has contributed, from its regular fund, $75,000 toward necessary expenses of the two-year course. Mrs. Frank Ray will furnish detailed information. There are other opportunities offered in different cities. The need for the great activity must be in corresponding ratio. "Home and foreign relief" is in charge of Mrs. Helen Hynt, who reported that great care must be exercised in naming her committee in order to co-operate with existing organizations. "Women's industries" is in the hands of Mrs. John Owen, who has passed on to high school girls the appeal made at the state meeting for "help for the farmers' wife"; that town girls who feel the call of patriotism be persuaded that at the present crisis work in the farm kitchen or poultry-yard or garden may be not only honorable but exceedingly profitable. "Training classes" is in the hands of Miss Jane Williams of the public school faculty, who is ready to recommend the star pupils in stenography and typewriting for positions, thus releasing experienced stenographers for government work. The community house has, as yet, no chairman.

All day Saturday there was a steady stream of people carrying clothing to the Red Cross rooms in response to the call for "950 tons for the lake division." Judging by the orderly piles and piles of coats, dresses, shirts, underwear, etc., all in excellent condition, Granville must have furnished her full quota and more. Mrs. L. N. Flory, who was in charge, spoke of the high grade material and the fine conditions of most of the supplies.

Dr. Charles A. Lucas of Louisville, Ky., who some years ago married Miss Carrie Halderman, formerly of Granville, has enlisted in the medical corps and is now in camp with the commission of major. Mrs. Lucas and daughter, Margaret, have arrived in Granville where they will remain with Mrs. Margaret Halderman in "Monomoy Place."

B. C. Belt, employed in government building work at Camp Sherman, is at home for a few days.

Arthur Wright Jones, Battery D, 324th F. A., stationed at Camp Sherman, spent his week-end leave with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Thompson.

Arthur Coulter of Granville, and Clifton W. Hall, a Denison student of the class of '20, were among those from Camp Sherman who visited friends in the village during the past few days.

Kenneth Ullman, who is engaged in the arduous task of rounding up cars of supplies for his company of manufacturers in Dayton, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ullman.

Worth Brown, M. D., Denison '00, a member of the Chapter of Sigma Chi, has enlisted in the medical reserve corps and is now in a British hospital "somewhere over there," as heart specialist. Following his graduation from a medical college in '03 or '04, Dr. Brown engaged in the practice of medicine in Toledo for several years with marked success. He then headed the call for medical missionaries and went to China where he saw active field service in two native uprisings, and since his return to this country he has been at Johns Hopkins University in a professional capacity. During the summer and fall he served Uncle Sam as contact surgeon at Camp Meade, not far from Baltimore. Mrs. Brown (formerly Miss Margery Hay of Shepardsen College) and the three children will remain for the present in Baltimore. Friends of the family will be saddened to learn that her mother, Mrs. Hay, has died since Dr. Brown's departure. Her present address is 2403 Roslyn avenue, Baltimore.

New April Numbers of Columbia Records

Rigoletto's song that won Stracciari fame

The climax of Stracciari's triumphant debuts in both New York and Chicago was his dramatic singing of Cortigiani vil razza dannata. And this is the song he has now recorded as his Columbia masterpiece. A wonderful record, reproducing the world-famous baritone's art at its best.

Casals' exquisite 'cello record of "Spring Song"

Acknowledged by musical critics as the greatest living 'cellist, Casals has won even wider popularity through the radiant beauty of his Columbia Records. His interpretation of Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" is an amazing revelation of the 'cello's musical possibilities.

A6020—$1.50

Oscar Seagle sings "The Beautiful Isle of Somewhere"

It has been well said of Oscar Seagle that he always "sings from the heart." And never has he proved it better than in this beautiful and sympathetic recording of McKinley's favorite hymn. On the back, "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand."

Tom, Dick, Harry and Jack, hurry back!

A corking patriotic song hit that will surely appeal to "the girls they left behind them." Coupled, appropriately, enough, with another lively, timely popular air, "I'll Come Back to You When It's All Over." Both sung by Arthur Fields, the soldier baritone.

Many Other Sparkling Numbers

These are only a few winners from the wonderful, complete April list of Columbia Records including 61 different selections. New Columbia Records

Stracciari has made a record for Columbia of Cortigiani vil razza dannata, the song from "Rigoletto" which won him fame in his New York and Chicago debuts. In Chicago last November, he was interrupted half way through this song by an audience that simply could not hold back its applause. In New York and Boston his greatest success was also won in his interpretation of this beautiful aria.

"Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" has been sung for Columbia by Oscar Seagle. This air won its early fame as McKinley's favorite hymn, but that was a long time ago, and its popularity has increased since. The hymn gains much by Mr. Seagle's sympathetic rendition of it. On the other side of this record is "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand," sung also by Mr. Seagle.

Casals with his 'cello has just made two more notable records for Columbia. These include Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" and Faure's "Ave Maria" and both catch nuances of 'cello shading never so successfully registered before.

One of the patriotic song-hits of the day has recently become a new Columbia record. It is "Tom, Dick, Harry and Jack, Hurry Back," and was sung by Arthur Fields. On the other side is another of Mr. Fields' songs, "I'll Come Back to You When It's All Over," composed by Mills.

War has revived two famous oldtime favorite songs. Both have been recorded by Columbia. They are "There'll Be A Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight," sung by Arthur Fields, and the Peerless Quartette with orchestra accompaniment, and "Good-bye, Doll Grass," sung by Hugh Donnan, tenor, with the assistance of the Broadway Quartette.

"Chu Chin Chow" has worked its way quickly into the records of all time. Columbia has just made two of its most popular melodies secure for tomorrow. The first chosen is "Anybody Kissing Time," sung by Robert Davis, tenor, and "At Sesta Time," recorded by Charles Harrison, tenor.

William McKean, one of a Glasgow music hall program-boy and now known as "the world's sweetest Gospel singer," has made two new records for Columbia. "Meet Mother in the Sinner's Arms" is the first of these and on the other side is the touching song, "My Mother's Bible."

"Happy Sammies" and "That's It" are the titles respectively of an excellent one-story and fox-trot played to make a new Columbia record by the Jazzing Orchestra.

You can now dance to the "Land of the Sun" music. "Oh, My Darling, Intrigue" "Off to Spain," is a new Columbia medley one-step dance recording, while upon the other side is "Trotterazo" introducing "Cucu," in a medley fox-trot. Both pieces are played by Prince's Orchestra under the supervision of G. Hepburn Wilson.

Lacy Gates has recently made a notably successful record for Columbia. The side is "On the Air," in which she does something more than just a flat above high C.

THE WAR NEWS.

Three editions of The Advocate on Saturday and one Sunday noon gave the people of this community the news of the progress of the world's greatest battle now raging in France. The superiority of the Associated Press news service was again demonstrated in Saturday's and Sunday's dispatches.

The startling announcement that Paris was being bombarded by the Germans at long-range was received with incredulity and the news was discredited by other news-gathering organizations. The Associated Press carried the official French announcement Sunday that the monster gun had been located in a forest 76 miles from the French capital. At frequent intervals 10-inch shells were hurled over that great distance into Paris at an estimated cost of $4000 for each shot. An official statement from Berlin confirms the French announcement of the bombardment of Paris by a gun 76 miles away.

Further confirmation came this morning in an official dispatch from Ambassador Sharp, in Paris, telling of the long-range bombardment of Paris by the Germans.

BEAUTY-SEEKERS.

These are days of suffragists and advance of women in industry. The old-fashioned woman who principally wanted to be physically beautiful, might be thought to be out of the game. Yet when the war department wanted a picture of the prettiest girl for one of its war posters, there were 22,000 competing photographs submitted. The beauty-seekers are not dead yet.

The old-fashioned girl wanted to be beautiful more than anything else. The woman's pages in the newspapers printed unlimited "beauty chats." The stuff must have had readers, or it wouldn't have been put in. Many serious-minded people used to say that it was a woman's first business to make herself physically attractive.

This theory was based on the idea that it was a woman's first business to seek and win the favor of some man so that she could marry and have a home. The home end of the ideal if all right. But the attainment of that end is not a favor solely to be dispensed by the male sex.

The old idea has been that men were won by good looks. There are many people that hold it still. Many young men in the cafe-age will discuss for hours the question which girl in their set is the best looking. They disregard cleverness, ability to do things, gracious manners, sparkling wit, and equable temper.

But the number of men who are caught by mere good looks is growing less every year. Classic features and fascinating complexions, real and faked, aren't the big winners they used to be. Just as masculine brain-power has always won over mere muscle, so the time is coming when feminine wit and brains will win over mere beauty.

SURVEY OF NEWARK.

A newspaper exchange remarked a few days ago that not over a third of the people in its own town were doing anything to help win the war. And not over a third were complying with the food conservation program.

Is that the case in Newark? Splendid work has been done on the Red Cross, Liberty bond, surgical dressing, Y. M. C. A. and K. of C. campaigns, because they were organized. Other efforts have been left too much to individual action. No kind of preparation goes well on that basis. It is like the mythical time when it was planned that if all the people of the earth would shout at the same instant, the noise would be heard by the inhabitants in Mars. When the appointed moment came, everyone kept still to hear everyone else.

The people of Springfield, Mass., have worked out a practical idea that should be put in force in every town in the United States. They gathered 1500 enumerators, and devoted one Sunday to taking a war census. They tried to visit every family, get everyone to sign agreements to try to live up to the food and fuel requirements, and also to find what labor could be transferred to needed gaps in the war trades. This gives the organization a complete directory of the war power of the city, and shows just what forces are available for war-work.

In anticipation of the great drive to create a war fund for 1918-19 it may be called a war chest or by some other name—a survey of Newark is to be made. More than 200 well-known men are enlisted for the service and they are to begin their work tomorrow evening. Every house in Newark is to be visited this week between the hours of 5 and 7:30 in the evening. Questions will be asked and a record made so that the war-work committee will have accurate data with which to operate. The war-work committee is proceeding in the right way and it is hoped that the people will quickly answer the questions so that the work may be carried on successfully.

Just now garden-work is a big thing to put over. It should not be left to individual initiative wholly. Every family should be urged to have a garden. It is the universal human experience that you can get twice as much co-operation by soliciting for it, as you can by expecting people to come into line without being asked.

QUICK ADVANCEMENT.

It is certainly astonishing to see how some of our soldier boys are coming along. Here is some young fellow, the pearly down of youth scarce shaved off his cheek, who now bears the honored title of lieutenant, captain, or even perhaps major. But a short time ago he was regarded as only a boy. Now he has the lives and fate of a group of men and the interests of his country in his youthful keeping. He is carrying heavier responsibilities than elderly men in positions of power and influence in the community.

This is one reason why army life appeals powerfully to young men. They feel the hazards keenly enough. But it cuts the gordian knots of life. In times of peace, life is a long and discouraging struggle for advancement. The knots are tangled and have to be united with infinite labor and pains.

In time of war, the doors to advancement are thrown wide open. There may not be much money success. But there is fame and reputation, which are rewards that men prize equally well. And all these opportunities may come within a few months or a year by the quick recognition that is given to ability.

The fellows who have accepted the risks of service, or who are cheerfully complying with the government call, are entitled to some compensation. It is right that they should be given prompt advancement in life ahead of those who stay at home.

When a young fellow returns from the wars with a good record in an officers' position, it should help him in the pursuits of peace. He has shown ability to lead men under circumstances of great strain. That ability should be valuable in any business field. So the fellows who are making these sacrifices are going to be the coming men in the future days of business competition.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer is again a very interesting newspaper now that Ted Robinson, the Philosopher of Folly, is back on the job. Mr. Robinson saved enough out of his salary to take a Florida vacation—a fact which is worthy of note in these days of the h. c. of 1.

After setting out to boss the whole world, Germany thinks it might be queer that she can't have the use of the best pier locations in our harbors to help do it.

It must make the red-tapers down at Washington dizzy to see things going through now without having to ask permission of every clerk in the department.

RE-DRAWING RUSSIA'S MAP.

(Youth's Companion.)

At Brest-Litovsk the German diplomats did something more than to dictate terms of peace to a helpless enemy; they remade the map of Western Russia. We cannot tell how long the nations they created and the frontiers they drew will last; but we may be sure that nothing except the complete defeat of the Central Powers by the western allies can materially alter the new arrangements. In what was once Russia, there is no power left to affect them.

First, the Germans have recognized the new state of Ukraine. That is agriculturally the richest part of the great Russian plain—the famous "black earth" region. It lies between the Black Sea, the Don River, the marshes of the Pripiet River and the borders of Poland and Galicia. It is larger in area than France or Austria-Hungary—approximately 250,000 square miles—and it has a population of 30,000,000. The capital is Kiev, and the seaport Odessa. Its civilization is older than that of the rest of Russia; and although it contains several millions of Jews and Poles besides the Little Russians who form most of the nation, its population is reasonably homogeneous.

Ukraine must be established and supported for the present by German or Austrian bayonets, for the Red revolutionists are numerous there and would be glad to set up a Bolshevik government in sympathy with the Petrograd regime. But once on its feet, and a going concern, Ukraine will probably become a permanent national entity, and of necessity a valuable tributary and military power that has its centre in Berlin.

On the north, there is to be a new state of Lithuania, perhaps nominally independent, but actually dependent on Prussia. Lithuania is to control all the Russian shore on the Baltic that the new state of Finland does not possess, with the ports of Riga, Libau and Reval. It is perhaps half the size of Ukraine.

The Poland that was reconstituted with so much pompous ceremony last year is to contain nothing except the Russian provinces round Warsaw. It is to be shut out from any access to the sea and surrounded on all sides by German territory, or territory dominated by Germany. The diplomats at Brest-Litovsk have seen to it that the most progressive, the most capable, and the most unfortunate of the Slav peoples is reduced to impotence.

If Rumania is contrite enough, it may get Bessarabia in return for the Dobruja, which it must surrender to Bulgaria. Like Poland, Rumania is wholly hemmed in; and must therefore resign itself to economic and political dependence on the Central Powers. Turkey—in order presumably that the massacre of the Armenians may be made complete—is to receive much of Russian Armenia beyond the Caucasus Mountains. The great mass of Russia that is left, tremendous in extent and numerous in population, is at present undisturbed. Since Siberia has fallen away, European Russia is safely cut off from every sea except the Arctic Ocean, and when it has recovered from the fever of Bolshevism it will find that it can do nothing except let itself be dictated to and exploited by the Germans. Reports are even current that Berlin is considering the re-establishment of the royal family in Petrograd, but with the Czarina, a German princess, on the throne. Whatever is the future disposition of the vast territories of Great Russia and Siberia, the Germans have a right to believe that the isolation of those lands from western Europe and the political incapacity their inhabitants have displayed will make them in effect mere dependencies of Prussia.

If Germany were differently ruled and were animated by a different spirit, there would be little reason to regret the increased influence of a modern, well-administered state on the chaotic and ignorant masses of Russia. Unfortunately, the ambition of the Hohenzollerns and of the Prussian military caste for the domination of the world is too well known to be questioned. If they remain in power not only over Germany and Austria but over the Balkans and Turkey and the eastern Europe they have mapped out, the world must look forward to a century of war and in the end to the exhaustion if not the extinction of the civilization that has been painfully and laboriously built up on the ruins of the civilization of Greece and Rome. It is unthinkable that the rest of the world will willingly submit to the rule of the ideals of the men who violated Belgium and committed the submarine atrocities. We dare not hope that they will alter their views on morals and politics. The decision rests at bottom with the German people. So long as they remain docile, they condemn the world to endless anxiety to servitude or to destruction. That is their terrible responsibility. Ours is to see that, if they shrink it, mankind is preserved from utter ruin. In the only way that they leave open—their defeat by force of arms.

A JAPANESE VIEW.

(East and West News.)

The Japan Times, of January 5, has a long leader in which the events of the past year are summarized. Its editor regards as of chief importance the entrance to the conflict of the United States, in April last. He believes that it will change the future history of the great republic and give to her people a standing in the world that heretofore they have avoided rather than sought.

"Germany has accused the United States of having been partial toward the allies from the beginning and she has very foolishly belittled America's capacity to participate in the conflict," says the editor. "Germany's conduct not only forced the nations of Europe to fight her, but made it impossible for the North American republic to remain neutral. President Wilson was making himself an object of heartfelt sympathy, and mixed with imitations by his forbearance. Germany was laughing at, mocking and abusing him. When, however, he threw down the gauntlet the allied world was moved with immeasurable admiration for his heroism; but Germany continued to show contempt and offer insults. Thus the central powers realize that the United States is over the first shock of war and is completing her organization preparatory to a long and disagreeable task. America, valorous, chivalrous and determined, is her own mighty self! We close the year with utmost joy for this wonderfully impressive spectacle of her national.

LEGAL RIGHTS OF SOLDIERS.

(Columbus Dispatch.)

Congress has lately passed a law fixing the legal rights of soldiers and sailors. It has decreed that no one shall take advantage of the absence from home of any of our soldiers or sailors to bring lawsuits against them. So far as our enlisted men are concerned, the "laws do not run against them" while they are in the service, as it is stated.

Mortgages can not be foreclosed against a soldier or sailor under this new law, while he is in the service. They can not be sued for debts. The family of such a man can not be ejected from a house for non-payment of rent, where the rent is less than fifty dollars a month. Anything that was purchased upon the installment plan can not be taken away from the family for non-payment of other installments that may be due. Wages can not be garnished. The man whose interests are placed in jeopardy because of his absence from home will be fully protected by the courts.

But this does not mean that the professional "dead-beat" can take advantage of the law. Great discretion is left with the courts. A judge becomes a sort of parental guardian for the soldier, but he has the power under the law to determine whether the soldier is deliberately trying to beat somebody through the law.

Congress did well to pass the law, but the truth is public sentiment was already at work in the interest of the soldier. Public sentiment itself is a powerful factor in this country; it is over and above the law, in a sense. At least the law plays little part where it is against public sentiment, and we were already getting around to the point where a suit against a soldier was so opposed to public sentiment that no few were resorting to the courts. But it is well that we now have a law in keeping with public sentiment, and that the courts as well as the opinion of the private citizen are going to look after the boys while they are fighting for us all.

LAUNCHING THE FLIVVER.

(New York Times.)

Once a flivver, now an eagle! It is rapid promotion, but that is the way of the war. Every owner of a land going Hunk-o'-tin will take a proper pride in the new submarine chasers to be built on the Ford plan and to be named by Mr. Daniels' order Eagles. Horns will toot a little louder, corners be cut a little sharper. Hail to the tin Aphrodite of the sea.

It is the great rehabilitation of the car, that chief remodeler of the despised into heroes. No ragtime bones on a backwoods circuit was too mean to jeer at a flivver before the war. Now thousand-a-week comedians on Broadway chant the hymn of Hunk-o'-tin and their voices choke in the process. What the flivver did and does for the wounded in France has wiped out the old score and chalked up a credit item that makes the flivver an honored sister of the tank.

Flightly, fluttery little chips of the old block these Ford chasers will be we suppose. Rather hard to steer, all for leaping clear out of the sea and landing a dozen waves off the course. But nose, persistent little devils—with endless power and a knack of roaring ahead on one cylinder or no cylinder—spite of all the rules of mechanics and the Seven Seas.

Spirit of the Press

Let Us, Too Drive Out Snakes.
Following its long established schedule St. Patrick's day brings again the old, old story of how Ireland's patron saint drove the reptiles from the Emerald Isle. Today an altogether new and more important inspiration is let loose by the telling of this story. It has to do with the snakes infesting warring America, huge, monster, cunning, slimy snakes of treason and profiteering. Scotch them! America will not be wholly American, nor really safe, and never completely victorious until those snakes are driven out, be they pro-Germanism, anti-Americanism, deluded pacifism, or dollar profitism.—Washington Herald.

Boys for the Farm.

The demand for the largest possible crops this year is imperative. The great obstacle to bumper crops is the lack of labor for the farms. The reserve of labor in the city—especially that of high school boys not commonly drawn upon—is considerable and the preliminary steps forward organizing it for this work have been going well. That organization should be completed promptly before the planting season opens, and nothing should be allowed to interfere with putting upon the farms every boy who can be induced to leave there, whether as a member of a farm crop or in private employment.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Recognizing Efficiency.

The war department has employed the right sort of method in the advancement of Gen. March to the very important position of acting chief of staff. The principle of recognizing efficiency by promoting in the service not only gets immediate results from the quality of the officers promoted, it tends to create a fine spirit throughout the Army. How much of Napoleon's success was due to his assumption that every soldier carried a marshal's baton in his knapsack!—Kansas City Star.

The Anthracite Miners.

It is greatly to the credit of the anthracite miners of Pennsylvania that though their working force is now 25,000 below the normal, they produced 5,312,032 tons of hard coal in February, as against 5,178,432 tons in February, 1917, an increase of over 12 per cent. This feat was only accomplished by the men voluntarily foregoing the holidays, which other persons observed, and which are especially dear to the underground workers. The anthracite miners produced all they could under very unfavorable circumstances, and this would probably have been sufficient if it could have been moved promptly. They are now meeting the demands of consumers by an exceptionally large output.—Philadelphia Record.

Why Not Pataskala?

Congressman Ashbrook has suggested to the national shipping board that one of the big government vessels in course of construction be named "Licking," and the suggestion has been referred to Mrs. Wilson, wife of the president. Mrs. Wilson, who is to name the vessels, states that she is willing to comply with the congressman's request. As Licking means Pataskala in Indian, why not get down to the root word and call the vessel Pataskala?—Pataskala Standard.

THE GOLDEN RULE.

(Ohio State Journal.)

We heard a man say we will never get the Golden Rule in good working order in this country. There is strong ground for fear that he is right. But the nearer we come to it the greater and happier this nation will be. Nor is the rule something to be enforced, like ordinary law. If the Golden Rule ever does obtain sway among us it will be from its own inherent tendency. When we set the country well out of this war and our democracy gets a real footing in the nation, we will soon begin to see that the Golden Rule is just as natural as an axiom, and that an obedience to it is a real source of happiness. Whenever a person does a noble deed, he will find there is a reflex action that will make him happy; and the result will be just the opposite when he does a mean or unworthy

That there are ten honors recognized by the army? Two are medals of honor, one a certificate of merit, the others badges of historic campaigns. The Congressional Medal of Honor, awarded only by Congress for some particular deed of gallantry in action, is the most coveted of all army honors. Its badge consists of white stars on a field of light blue silk. The Certificate of Merit Badge is conferred by the President and consists of two red, white and blue bands. Ribbons for gallantry in action are worn farthest to the left, followed by campaign ribbons in chronological order.

OUTSIDE WORKING HOURS.

The movement for a shorter working day has become very widespread. It is possible that our entire industrial system may be organized on an eight-hour basis before long. But it is pretty sure that the man who expects any considerable success will have to keep his brain working during some of his off hours.

The ambitious fellow gets contradictory advice. One authority tells him to quit thoughts of work when he quits the shop. Otherwise he will lose sleep, become a prey to worry, and fail to get his best efficiency.

On the other hand, there are very few business men that do not solve many of their problems in the quiet hours away from the office. The artisan or clerical worker who quits all thought of work on leaving the shop may live a comfortable and happy life. But he is not likely to get very far. The fellows who are really going ahead are using some of their spare time to fit themselves for larger work.

The number of people who are working during off hours for a larger future is more than people realize. A host of them are taking correspondence courses, attending evening schools, or classes in Y. M. C. A. organizations, and boys' and girls' clubs. The young people of Newark who are using their hours outside of work purely for sport and pleasure may not realize how many of their friends are quietly preparing for larger futures.

It is one of the arguments against the long working day, that it leaves people so physically weary that they cannot do any quiet home-planning about their work, or engage in preparatory study for a larger future. It is foolish for people to fret and worry. But most earnest people do a lot of quiet thinking in their off hours, as to how they can better meet their daily problems.

POOR HANDWRITING.

The government is complaining about the poor penmanship of its men in military and naval service. To this cause it attributes the delay in sending out a great mass of February checks for pay and family allotment. A great many illegible signatures and addresses have been handed in, thus placing a serious difficulty in the way of clerical work. With 500,000 checks to be written, illegible handwriting is no small proposition. It has called for a lot of correspondence to verify addresses.

What is the trouble with our schools that they don't teach our boys to write legibly? The old-timers say that there are too many frills, too much time given to studies other than the sacred old three "R's." They should remember, however, that the boy who goes out into life today knowing only "readin', 'ritin' and 'rithmetick," as the old-timers used to say, is poorly equipped for this swift age.

It would be nearer the truth to locate the trouble with the large number of boys who quit school at the seventh, eighth, or ninth grades. It takes years to acquire a good handwriting.

Also, one trouble is the fact of teaching children to write fast, with which many of our educators have been affected. They have seemed to think every boy was going to be a bookkeeper and must learn to scribble scientifically at a high rate of speed. On the contrary most people in this age of typewriters do not have any large amount of writing to do by hand. They need to write very legibly a little at a time, to be able to write signatures and addresses and memoranda so that they can be read at a glance. Excepting those who are to do clerical work for a living, what most people need is a plain round hand with little regard to speed.

The politicians are slowly waking up to the fact that the people who are going to get elected for some years to come are those that have done something in this war.

It is hard to see why there should be this awful scarcity of leather, when you note that the butcher's shops still have plenty of beef-steak.

When the baseballs begin to come into the kitchen windows from the back lot where the boys are playing, then we know that sweet spring is truly here.

Part of the meatless days have been done away with, but the landlady does not always seem to know it when she makes beef stew.

Some men can't afford to spend anything for advertising, they need all their money to pay the fee of the referee in bankruptcy.

The women gardeners, of course, will work a lot better if the colors of the hoe-handle match their garden suits.

The proper location for capital of Russia would seem to be some city where you can run in any direction.

Another cheerful sign of spring is the raucous horn of the motorist bidding you jump for your life.

NO FLINCHING BY THESE METHODISTS.

(Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.)
Hearty approval will be given by all loyalists to this resolution adopted yesterday by the Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church:

We urge the speedy enactment of a law which will mete out to German propagandists and traitorous Americans the full penalty of spies.

Four hundred ministers of the gospel voted "aye" when the question was put. Lovers of peace, they are pacifists when civilization is assailed and country calls for defenders; soldiers true, and every one a captain in the Army of the Lord, they are moved by no blood lust and respond not to the declamations of swashbucklers. But they see clearly that in one vital particular our government has failed in protecting the country's interests. Through some mistaken idea of duty vipers that should be crushed wherever their presence becomes known have been treated tenderly, if not sympathetically, thereby being encouraged to continue their treacherous work in behalf of Germany on our soil.

The Philadelphia Methodists have done a patriotic service in demanding a change consistent with the necessity of the situation and putting back of it the full force of their powerful organization. Congress should act on the call. We need to clean house with ropes or bullets.

POISONING HORSES.

(Columbus Dispatch.)
A German sympathizer, or a group of them, poisoned more than 500 horses at Covington, Ky. The animals had been sent there for artillery purposes, and dropped dead day by day until all had perished—as diabolical a thing as was ever born in the brain of even a Hun. And still some people seem to believe that the newspapers of this country are too severe in their criticisms of these German sympathizers.

It isn't necessary to describe the character of a person who would resort to such practice. There are not adequate words in the English language, any way, to describe him. But it ought to show the loyal citizens of this country what we are up against. It ought to teach us that instead of being too severe in our criticisms of the German sympathizers, we have been too mild. But above all it ought to point the way—to the penitentiary and to the firing squad.

How much longer are we going to handle suspects with kid gloves, lest we abrade the hide of a scoundrel? How much longer are we going to tolerate in our midst a person who is not in sympathy with this country? How much longer are we going to allow to run at large these horse poisoners?

Every person who has spoken a word of disloyalty ought to be arrested and interned to say the least. The people in this city who have sympathized with Germany ought to be taken in hand, before they can poison our boys, for the man who would poison a horse would also poison one of our boys if he had a chance. These enemies we have among us—and we have them, all right—ought not longer to be allowed the freedom of the streets. This Covington incident shows that we are harboring the most dastardly crew that ever scuttled a ship, and some of them will be found wearing good clothes and pretending to be Americans. Let's have a general clean-up. It may work a hardship in some isolated case, but we can not afford to longer take chances. Let's clean up and arrest every suspected person, and intern every horse poisoner or potential horse poisoner found in our midst. We have shown mercy long enough. It is time we were protecting ourselves.

Seek and ye shall find. The fellow who is looking for trouble may get a black eye.

(Philadelphia Record.)
The people who are still repeating the stale and exploded folly that the war department has "almost ceased to function" have only the vaguest conception of the unprecedented work the department has already done and is doing. For their instruction we referred the other day to a couple of magazine articles touching rather lightly, but graphically, upon the gathering and organization of the national army and the vast work of manufacturing and transportation and storage that is being done in France for the supplying of our army. Nothing like this was ever done before in the history of the world.

Last week there were descriptions in the news dispatches of the enormous undertakings now in progress for the construction of warehouses, terminal facilities and shipping accommodations on this side for our foreign army. This has just been supplemented by a dispatch from France descriptive of a vast port that this country is creating for the unloading of our troops and the unloading of our supplies. The work astonished the secretary of war as much as it did any one else.

When our government began transporting troops and supplies to France it encountered a difficulty more serious than the shortage of shipping. It was the lack of berthing accommodations at the French port assigned to us. After we had got the ships and they had carried their cargoes of supplies to France they had to wait for their turn to unload, and occasionally they were lying idle for weeks before they could discharge and return for another cargo. Mr. Baker was taken to see the American port in France, now rapidly approaching completion, in which it will be possible for 40 great steamers to lie alongside the quays and unload simultaneously. That will be equivalent to the addition of several hundred thousand tons of shipping to the service of the government. Less than a year ago there was nothing there; now the accommodations are in sight for discharging a fleet of 40 steamers at once, which may at once turn around and return to the United States for 40 more cargoes.

Reticent as the government must necessarily be in regard to what it is doing, yet enough is disclosed to give to the attentive suggestions of the greatest piece of business administration for military purposes that the world has seen. Yet partisanship, and personal resentment, and the disease of fault-finding, are still sneering at or denouncing the incompetence of the military administration. When the details are made public the national heart of America will swell at the extraordinary efficiency of the war department, as well as over the courage and cheerfulness and dash and the victory of our fighting men.

TO MAKE AMERICA SAFE.

(Pittsburgh Gazette Times.)
The northwestern states are in a fair way to enact laws the necessity of which has been demonstrated since the United States entered the war. The legislature of South Dakota assembled in special session yesterday and the governor of Nebraska issued a call for a special session of the lawmakers of that state. Safety for America is the thought uppermost in the mind of each of the executives. Gov. Peter Norbeck of South Dakota puts first among his recommendations an amendment to the state constitution to deny the right of franchise to all but full citizens. Gov. C. Neville of Nebraska names among the subjects urgently calling for consideration the passage of a similar law. In both states aliens may vote upon merely declaring their intention to become citizens. Eight states in all swell their voting lists in this un-American way, which also gives aliens the right to hold public office, as in the case of an Indiana city where one was elected mayor last fall. Nebraska and South Dakota will do well to make the change demanded. The other states like them should mericanize their qualifications of voters as quickly as possible.

The South Dakota governor also recommends passage of a law to make treason an offense punishable under state law, and the Nebraska executive regards as urgently demanded legislation providing penalties for sedition and sabotage. There can be no two opinions as to the necessity of such legislation wherever the public enemies are now free to pursue their evil bent. If the federal government were sensible of the enormity of the crimes of treason and sedition there would be no need of special state enactments. National laws cover the offenses, providing exemplary penalties for those guilty of them, but so far in the war they have been treated practically as dead letters. When the states come to considering protective legislation of this character Washington may wake up.

Ratification of the prohibition amendment is recommended to the South Dakota legislature, but the governor of Nebraska is silent on this subject. However, as both states are "dry" it is to be expected the amendment will be disposed of at the special sessions, if the Nebraska lawmakers can act on matters not specifically mentioned in the governor's call.

A CHINESE ULTIMATUM.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
In the matter of ultimatums China has hitherto invariably been the receiver and not the giver. Now the Chinese assert their national maturity by ordering the Bolsheviks to keep out. The order is delivered as curtly and as emphatically as ever a European power delivered an ultimatum to China. The Chinese mean business and are ready to fight. The Chinese decision may have the result of simplifying the far eastern situation. China does not propose any formal intervention on Russian soil. She merely insists that her own territory be not invaded. It pleases China to regard the Bolshevik government as the rightful de facto government of Siberia, and she is within her rights in granting this faction asylum in Chinese territory. She is equally justified in declining to permit the military rabble of the Bolsheviks to invade Chinese territory for any purpose whatever. By taking this stand China puts the onus of belligerency on the Bolsheviks. If China is now invaded the Chinese may advance into Siberia in retaliation. Japan, China's ally, may assist if called on. The Lvoff government, which is recognized by China as the provisional government, which is recognized by China as the provisional government of Siberia, would be in the position of commanding the services of both the oriental allies.

So the question of Japanese intervention might be simplified. Yet it is gravely to be feared that aggressive action by China would lead to a direct break between Peking and the clique which today dominates great Russia. Lenin, if he has the will, can make this defensive Chinese action appear as unfriendly aggression and influence the still deluded Bolsheviks to the point of actual war not only against China but also against the great alliance of which China is a member. That Lenin is only awaiting a pretext for joining Germany against the allies is now generally believed. The Chinese ultimatum may serve as well as actual Japanese intervention.

That the world war will soon blaze up in the far east seems almost certain. Whether the Asiatic powers will be opposed by Bolsheviks alone or by Bolsheviks in alliance with the Prussians who have crushed the life out of old Russia remains to be seen. Lenin unquestionably belongs in the Prussian camp and yearns to be there. Can he take his sheep-like followers with him?

SELF-SUPPORTING WOMEN.

(Detroit Free Press.)
This is the first time in the world's history that millions of women have been on a self-supporting basis. A remarkable feature of the situation is the number of married women thus occupied. The census of 1900 showed that 25 per cent of women over 16 were wage-earners, and that 749,000 married women were engaged in gainful occupations. Ten years later the proportion of wage-earning women had greatly increased and among the groups the proportionate increase was greatest in the case of married women, then numbering 1,390,000. Man is apparently surrendering his prerogative as provider, and being provided for instead. Nevertheless, the business in marriage licenses shows few signs of abatement.

Women in business are experiencing a change of heart in respect to marriage. To enter it unthinkingly they must be "caught young." They expect more of the men they marry. Their association with men of ability and affairs as employers or fellow workers leads them to look for higher standards in the men of their own class who would marry them. All the talk about eugenics has not been wasted on women; they think more about a man's physical and moral cleanliness than did those of a previous generation, to whom a husband was a provider, chiefly. They want their children to be sane and healthy. Some of them reason, too, why give up a good paying position in work they like, to marry? To the true woman there is but one answer; it must be at the bidding of a sincere affection and the longing for a real home and children as compelling reasons. Women are losing many of their romantic, sentimental illusions through contact with men in business. Presently there will be a dearth of eligible men; thousands will accept celibacy as a matter of course. Those able to support husbands may accept that duty toward the maimed and invalid.

But, after all, Nature has something to say in the premises. That the eternal feminine is still dominant is evident in the fact that whatever her work or her age the woman worker never appears on the street without first powdering her nose. A comfortable reliance may be placed on the innate coquetry of her sex and its instinctive desire to please through personal charm. And in fiction, we still demand the Victorian climax of a happy marriage.

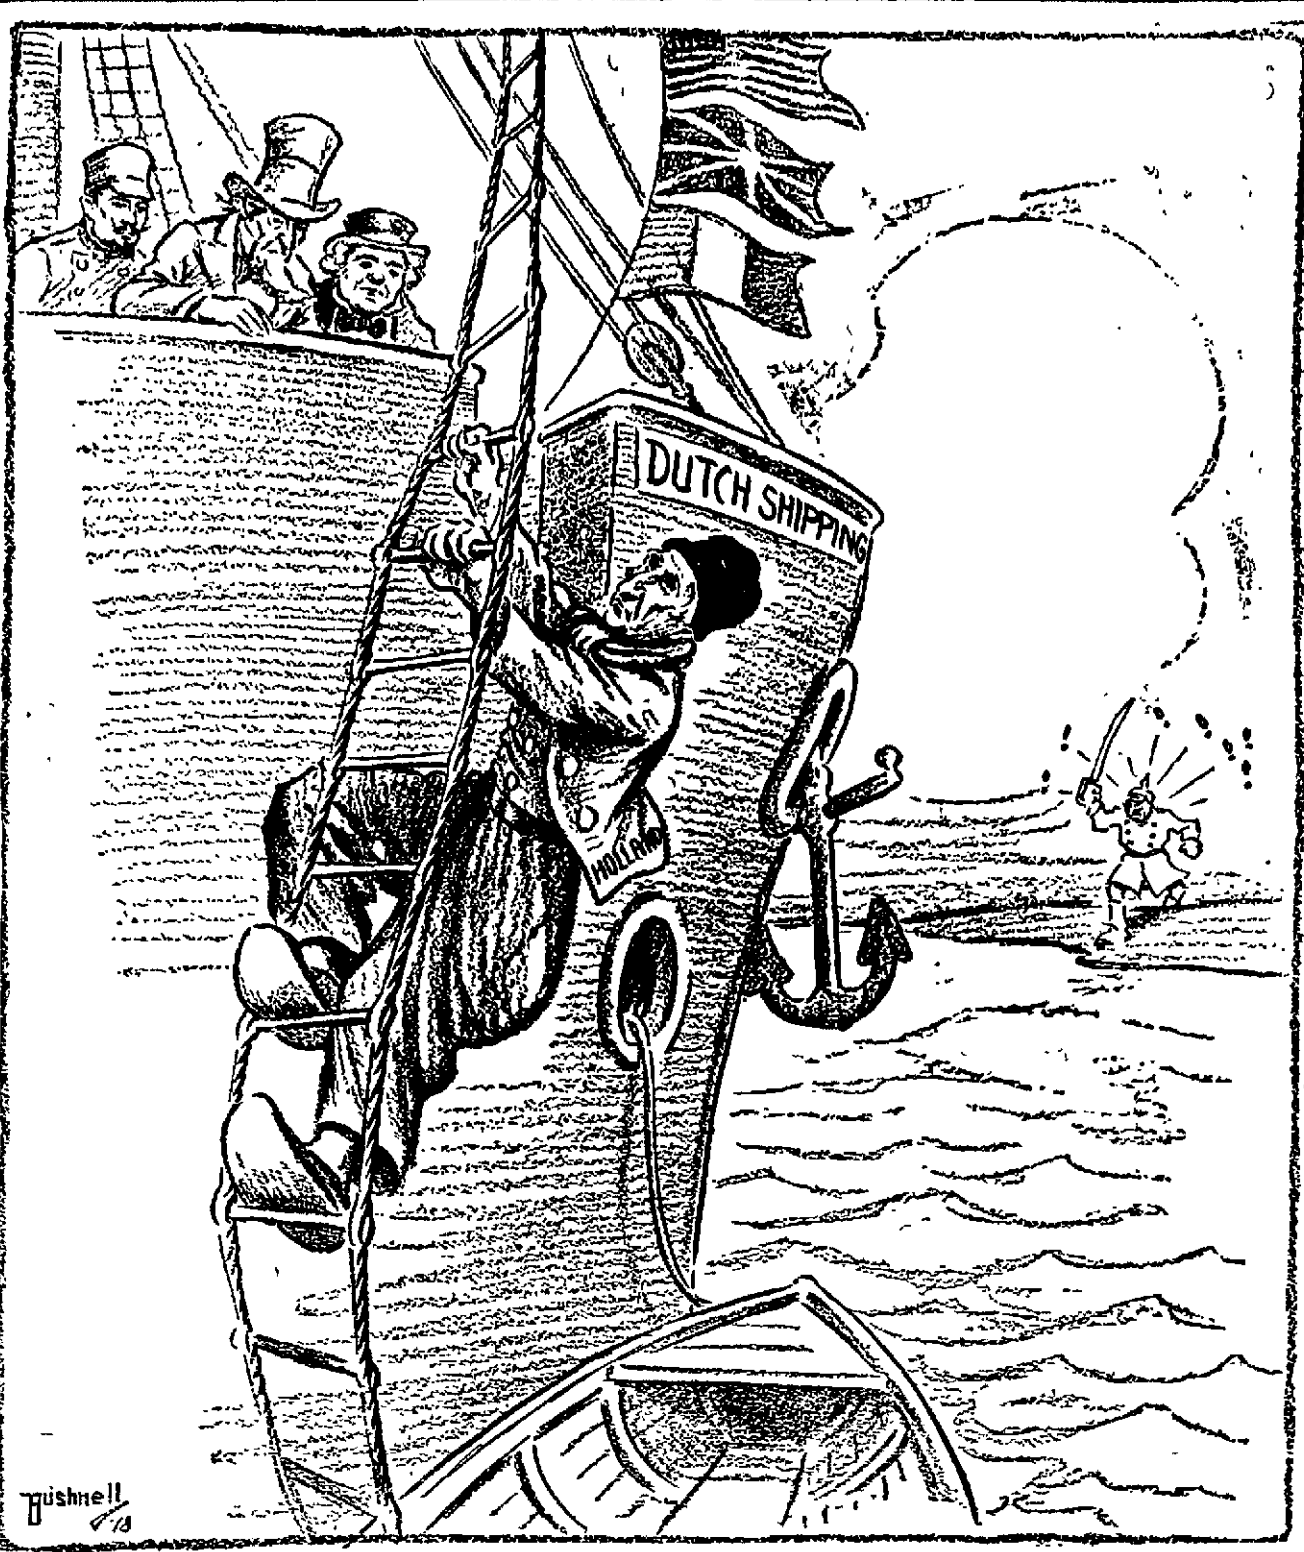

FUTILE SENATOR REED.

(New York Times.)
The senate's time costs $4,964.61 a day, whatever it may be worth. On Tuesday Senator Reed took three hours of the senate's time, say $2,978.76 worth, for a speech opposing what he afterward voted for. If the senator had not retreated into his dugout when the roll was called, it might have been worth what it cost to put him on record as opposing something. But thousands of dollars' worth of talk on one side balanced by a vote on the other side is not worth the senator's trouble to the country's money. Considering that the subject the senator raised was Mr. Hoover's reckless waste of the public funds, it would seem that the senator might have stood by his guns and voted the way he talked.

"I propose to show," declared Senator Reed, "that never before in the history of this nation has there been such a saturnalia of wastefulness and extravagance as that which has characterized the expenditures of the food administration. A drunken sailor, returned to port after a five-year cruise and filled with New England rum never threw money around like the food administration."

Of course Mr. Hoover is responsible for everything in the food line. He does not run from his record, like the senator from Missouri. Accordingly, Mr. Hoover is entitled to the fat along with the lean, and even while Senator Reed was talking the news was announced that the country had responded to the food administration's appeal, and that there was less need for meatless days because the supply had increased. There are 1,247,000 more cattle than a year ago, 3,781,000 more hogs, and 1,234,000 more sheep. Also, eggs are cheaper, and the cows will be killed because there is too much milk. It is pretty hard on Senator Reed that such news should come out while he was arguing that Mr. Hoover was not worth his pay, and ought to be dismissed for incompetency. How would Senator Reed like to have a rule like that made of general application?

"Dropping the Pilot"—Neutral Holland's Sacrifice to Allies' Necessity

(Toronto Mail.)

The billions upon billions of war debt within the empire will force on it exceptional measures. There are three ways of meeting the situation: more and more taxation; one big levy upon existing wealth; or vast schemes for more production. The empire resources committee is a British body considering ways and means of helping to pay the war debt by state enterprise in production and development. It was this body that put forward the project of a gigantic "imperial farm" created by the British government in the Canadian west, the profits from the development to go to paying the British war debt. The lines of inquiry that are being followed by the committee are interesting. There were three of these: (1) a possible monopoly by a state committee of the marketing of any special product from any part of the empire, the profits to go toward reducing war debt; (2) state enterprise in developing sugar, tobacco or other plantations, and reselling; (3) opening up roads, canals, or railways in outlying parts of the empire, selling timber or other adjacent lands thereby made valuable, and putting the profits into war debt redemption. In these suggestions it is assumed that the British treasury will furnish most of the capital, and, of course, take most of the profits.

Whether the governments of Britain, the dominions, and lesser units in the empire can devise some mutually profitable state enterprises is a matter for inquiry. The vast undeveloped riches of outlying parts of the empire afford an inviting field, but the difficulties are by no means slight. The various sections of the empire must be brought into co-operation for the tasks of peace as effectually as they have been for the tasks of war.

Plain Railroading.

When the press that formerly talked with apparent gusto about trains de luxe, sumptuous carriages and palatial coaches is ready, as it seems to be now, to applaud every step toward the elimination of frills in railway accommodations, it is fair to assume that, under government control, the passenger-carrying business of the United States will, before the war is over, get down to the basis of a plain, clean, reliable service, and this is what at least 90 per cent of the travelers have wished for during many years of gew-gaw and gingerbread.—Christian Science Monitor.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINES

Regularly This Spring—Hood's Sarsaparilla Before Meals—Pepton After.

This combination is having wonderful success everywhere. It is relieving rheumatism, expelling humors, restoring lost appetite, giving the glow of health to the cheeks, making faces bright and complexions clear, and literally giving worn-out, brain-fagged people new ambition and the strength of iron.

For it combines that most useful of all metals—iron—in a course of medicine that is peculiarly effective. Hood's Sarsaparilla is made from an unsurpassed formula of blood-purifying and stomach-toning remedies, and Pepton from poppin, iron, nux and other blood and stomach tonics that physicians prescribe. In cases where a cathartic is needed, Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pepton are very effectively supplemented by Hood's Pills, relieving biliousness, constipation, and all liver ills.

GO TO CHURCH TOMORROW

Go to church tomorrow that you may hear the teachings of the philosophy of Jesus, the incomparable man, and if you say His teaching is philosophy and not religion, and that He was a man and not God, then the philosophy of that man has redeemed the world from savagery, and blessed mankind with Christian civilization, and is a thing worth while to hear. In its atmosphere vice and crime wither and die. Go to church tomorrow and help make the world better.—Selected.

NEXT SATURDAY MARCH 30 TO BE HOSPITAL TAG DAY

Next Saturday, March 30th, the day before Easter, will be Newark Hospital Tag day.

The work will be under the direction of the Twentieth Century club, an organization of twelve young women who during the past five years have rendered valuable service for the hospital.

Beginning in 1913 the dozen little girls who comprised the membership in the club, gave a garden party which netted $105 for the hospital. Their success encouraged them to try other means of raising money for the hospital and each year their efforts have met with success. Last year on Tag day they raised $420 and they are hopeful of doing even better this year. The money obtained has been used to furnish the baby ward, help to equip the nurses home and to provide equipment for the laboratory and the domestic science department.

The Twentieth century club members were children when they began their good work for the hospital and with the advance of years the results obtained are more pronounced. Miss Mildred Simpson is president, Miss Helen Norpell secretary and Miss Laura Haggis treasurer of the club.

In conducting Tag day next Saturday the club will have assistance from a number of other young women in order that everybody may have an opportunity to wear a tag and thus help to support one of the city's most worthy institutions. The date remember, is Saturday, March 30th.

Milady's Boudoir

Dancing Wrinkles.
One has only to watch a group of dancers for a few moments to pick out those who have acquired the dancing face. Many victims of the dance craze are so incapable of relaxing and dance with so much exertion and evident anxiety, that the set facial expression is very noticeable.

Dancers, both men and women, are apt to get wrinkles between their eyes and an anxious, drawn expression about their mouths, caused by their efforts to acquit themselves creditably on the dancing floor. Wrinkles, like other troubles, seldom come singly, and with the wrinkles comes the droop at the corner of the mouth and the neck wrinkles caused by a stiff, unnatural carriage of the body which some dancers affect.

While it may be a little difficult to manage one's face and one's feet at the same time, it is one of the essentials and should be given a great deal of attention. To expend physical and nervous energy at the same time, must be avoided and unless one can make a play of dancing it is better not to dance at all.

The woman dancer is often at a disadvantage also, because she is not properly dressed for the various motions demanded by the dance. No matter how skimpy the skirt may be at the lower edge, there must be ample room for dipping or the dancer cannot hope to be graceful or to dance with a happy, carefree face.

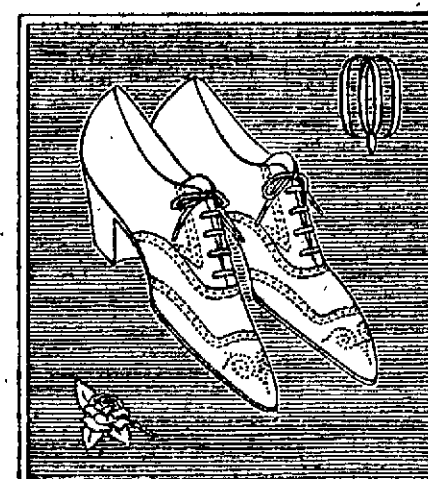

Tight dancing slippers are another menace to grace. No woman can hope to go through the figures of any dance, with a childlike freedom of movement unless she wears comfortable shoes. The more comfortable the dancer is, the less danger of the peril of the dancer's face which is so fatal to beauty.
